Joe: Against Any for Kennedy

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — A cross - state battle among New York Democrats brewed today in the wake of a pledge by Rep. Joseph Y. Resnick to "oppose everybody" supporting the presidential bid of U.S. Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

Resnick outlined his position Monday at an Albany news conference that virtually coincided with announcements in Washington by two other Democratic congressmen from New York that they backed Kennedy.

Based on Disagreement

Rep. Richard Ottinger of Pleasantville, Westchester County, said his decision was based on a long - standing disagreement with President Johnson's policies.

Rep. Jacob H. Gilbert of The Bronx said he believed Kennedy could "restore the morale of our young people, mobilize the energy needed to reverse the decay of the cities and find the formula required to end the war in a just and fair manner."

They commented at separate news conferences.

Kennedy also won public support Monday from Dominick Assaro, Utica's freshman mayor, who said the New York senator seemed "the man most determined and most able to do the things that are needed to deal with the multiple ills of our cities..."

Kennedy campaigned for Assaro, a reform candidate, last fall.

Travia Mum

Assembly Speaker Anthony J. Travia, the legislature's most powerful Democrat, refused, however, to comment to reporters on the Johnson - Kennedy split.

Travia said he had been "preoccupied with state matters" and did not wish to become involved in presidential politics at this time.

He added that he "may have something to say" at the end of this year's session, which, he noted, could run into the summer.

Resnick, of Ellenville, is one of three announced contenders for the party's nomination for U.S. senator, to oppose incumbent Jacob Javits, a Republican.

Resnick on Loyalists

Resnick said he would organize "loyalist" candidates to oppose pro-Kennedy, anti-Johnson Democrats running for presidential - convention delegates or Congress in the June 18 state primary.

He said he might extend the effort to candidates for the State Legislature.

Resnick, asked whether he would support Kennedy if the senator wrested the nomination from Johnson, replied:

"Absolutely not...under no circumstances."

He did not rule out possible support for Minnesota Sen. Eugene McCarthy, however.

McCarthy, like Kennedy, has sharply criticized Johnson's Vietnam policy. Resnick has said he stands "four - square" behind the President on Vietnam.

Both Ottinger and Gilbert voiced confidence that a majority of the state's 22 Democratic congressmen would join them in backing Kennedy.

"I have done everything I possibly could to persuade the administration to change its policies," Ottinger said, but Johnson "is intransigent in the face of error."

Too Early on LBJ

He said it was too early for him to decide whether he would support Johnson if the President won renomination.

Gilbert said it was "important there be a new departure ... that we shift the mood of the country from despair to hope."

Newsmen expressed surprise at Travia's noncommittal stance. They had been told by Travia's associates that the speaker was prepared to side openly with Kennedy, even if it ended the prospects of Travia's being named a federal judge.

Travia's name has been submitted to Johnson for appointment to a federal judgeship in New York City, but Johnson has not yet sent the proposed appointment to the Senate.

Travia, answering newsmen's questions, said he did not believe the Johnson-Kennedy split would affect his chances for the judgeship.

He acknowledged, however, that it could complicate the problem of choosing his successor as speaker.

Would - be successors include Assemblyman Stanley Steingut of Brooklyn, who is closely associated with Kennedy.

Another contender is Majority Leader Moses Weinstein of Queens, who strongly opposed Steingut's 1965 bid for the speakership.

FIGHTING JOE—In a news conference in Albany, Congressman Joseph Y. Resnick of Ellenville, announced a statewide movement "to unite loyal Democrats in a war against Bobby Kennedy." Resnick also blasted John Burns, the state Democratic chairman, referring to him as Kennedy's campaign manager. (UPI TELEPHOTO)

By JOSEPH E. MOHBAT

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Robert F. Kennedy's battle with Lyndon B. Johnson for the Democratic presidential nomination may be more bitter and personal than Kennedy apparently intended at the outset.

"The issue is not personal," Kennedy said in announcing his candidacy Saturday. He would campaign on the major issues America faces, he said.

But the chemistry of two emotion-charged appearances Monday before shrieking university students in Kansas may have changed that.

So might his reaction to reports the White House leaked stories that Kennedy had offered to stay out of the race if Johnson would appoint a high-powered Vietnam commission to revise U.S. war policy.

While Kennedy feels he came out ahead in the exchange over the commission, he uttered this phrase Monday before 17,000 Kansas University students:

"This country needs honesty and candor in its political life and from the President of the United States."

The young people in the bleachers and those clustered around him on the highly varnished floor of the basketball court shouted approval and he continued:

"The President of the United States goes to a conference in Montevideo. He is confined to a well-guarded base while a U.S. destroyer patrols offshore.

"Can he go into the city of Montevideo itself? Can he travel through other countries of South America where a President of the United States once was so admired? I don't think we have to accept that.

"I don't think we should have to accept in the United States that the President has to go around the country visiting only military bases."

And earlier he vehemently states more firmly than ever his reaction to any possibility of being Johnson's running mate:

"I would under no circumstances accept the vice presidency under President Johnson."

The New York Democrat's campaign style began to show after only one day of all-out campaigning.

He is most confortable, as he always has been, with a young audience. And the frenzied response of more than 30,000 at Kansas State and the University of Kansas must have given him some reassurance that Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, D-Minn., hasn't captured all of America's youth.

"McCarthy may have all the 'A' students," one long-time political reporter quipped. "But it looks like Bobby's got the 'B' and 'C' students."

Kennedy made it clear in his first day of campaigning that the Vietnam war will set the pace of his effort.

At the last moment before his opening address at Kansas State he added this line about the war:

"If the defense of Khe Sanh is so important to the South Vietnamese government, I want to see South Vietnamese troops in there and the U.S. Marines out of there."

The response to that was so violently favorable that he tried it again at the University of Kansas in the afternoon and an even greater ovation assured the line a prominent place in Kennedy's campaign oratory in the days ahead.

Johnson: the Rugged Infighter-- And, That's Only the Beginning

By FRANK CORMIER

WASHINGTON (AP) — "Just one final word," said Lyndon B Johnson, and then proceeded to utter more than 1,000 words—words designed not only to defend his policies in Vietnam but to help insure his political survival.

Hasn't Changed From '64

If anyone ever needed proof the President is a campaign-seasoned fighter, here was vocal evidence that for him the slogan in 1968 hasn't changed from 1964. It's "LBJ all the way."

And, from a look at the weekend headlines, one might even get the impression that, when political survival is at stake, Johnson is a rugged infighter.

Before the LBJ counter-attack, the headlines reflected a solid week of bad news, from his standpoint: The "moral victory" over Johnson by Minnesota Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy in New Hampshire's Democratic primary; the challenge to Johnson's presidency by Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y.; and finally a gold-dollar crisis of dimensions unrivaled in more than 30 years.

One might suspect Johnson would have been dismayed, if not bowed, by all this. Assuredly, he felt the onrush of events. But he came back fighting hard.

Indeed, Johnson's step seemed to become springier and his platform oratory more pointed as the challenge grew.

The headlines really tell the story of the Johnson counter-attack against the forces arrayed against him.

Unannounced

On Saturday, Kennedy was accorded free television-radio time to announce his candidacy for the presidency. Initially, most observers thought he had the headlines wrapped up for Sunday morning newspapers.

But these seers reckoned without Johnson. Unannounced, he went before an audience of top-drawer businessmen and voiced a rather determined defense of his embattled Vietnam policy.

And that was only the beginning.

Simultaneously, "reliable sources" disclosed that Vietnam troop reinforcements would be moderate compared with the reported request for 206,000 additional men by Gen. William C. Westmoreland, U.S. commander in Vietnam.

What's more, the same sources disclosed that Johnson was secretly collaborating with leaders of Congress to make significant cuts in the federal budget—as the price for the higher taxes the President seeks.

Result: Johnson and the anonymous sources, wrapped into a single news account, captured headlines from Kennedy in many newspapers around the country.

Johnson, when pressed, is adept at using the power of his office to put down any challenge. So was John F. Kennedy. Barry Goldwater once complained that every time he had the potential of making headlines at a Republican meeting in the capital, the late President found a way to top him.

On Sunday, the challengers to Johnson had an ostensible two-to-one advantage in network television time, and presumably in headlines Monday morning. The line-up on network question-and-answer programs was Kennedy and McCarthy vs. Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey.

But then it was disclosed—by still unnamed sources—that Kennedy had met with Secretary of Defense Clark M. Clifford to discuss a proposal for setting up a special presidential commission to revise Vietnam policy.

As the sources put it, Kennedy offered not to run for president if Johnson adopted the commission proposal.

White House Accused

Kennedy later accused the White House of distorting its accounts of the proposal and his part in it. He denied assertions by administration aides that he had attempted to force Johnson to change his Vietnam policies.

Exactly how this explosive bit of political interplay was "leaked" is a matter in dispute. Kennedy blamed the administration and the White House professes innocence.

But no matter how it came about, the story as told by the anonymous sources placed Kennedy in the position of a political blackmailer and would-be usurper of presidential power. And the story was widely published in the newspapers.

Fresh from that clash, Johnson flew without prior announcement Monday from his Texas ranch to the Minneapolis convention of the National Farmers Union.

It was there, in the ballroom of a downtown hotel, that he really cut loose and, defending his Vietnam policies, extemporized in his most emotional, onswinging fashion. His targets clearly were Kennedy and McCarthy.

Declaring he has had more would-be secretaries of state than any President in modern times, Johnson pointedly asserted that he "welcomes suggestions from committees, from commissions, from Congress, from private individuals, from clubs"—in short, from anyone who thinks he has a solution to the Vietnam war.

But the real burden of his message, much of it extemporaneous, was to suggest the Communists are assaulting the very moral fiber of the nation by capitalizing, if not encouraging or organizing, antiwar dissent at home.

Marines Trap Viet Regulars

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. Marines overran a rocket-firing band of North Vietnamese regulars Monday and reported killing 67 of the enemy in new fighting below the eastern end of the demilitarized zone.

This brought enemy casualties around the U.S. Marine base at Dong Ha to more than 900 since March 1. Twelve Marines were killed and 24 were wounded in the clash Monday four miles north of the big Marine supply base.

About 150 Marines were maneuvering to attack the enemy position when they were flailed by about 40 rounds of 140mm rocket fire. Allied artillery, helicopter gunships and fighter-bombers hammered the enemy lines for an hour, and then the Leathernecks attacked.

Take Three Prisoners

The heavy fighting ended quickly, as the enemy fled. The Marines captured three prisoners.

Dong Ha, headquarters of the 3rd Marine Division and supply depot for all allied outposts along the eastern half of the DMZ, has been under pressure from troops of North Vietnam's 324B Division that slipped through the buffer zone and past allied outposts earlier this year. South Vietnamese forces have reported killing more than 700 of the enemy in the area this month while the Marines say they have killed more than 150.

Below the western end of the DMZ, North Vietnamese gunners hurled 125 rocket, mortar and artillery shells into the much-scarred Marine combat base at Khe Sanh Monday. A U.S. military spokesman said casualties as usual were light among the base's 7,000 defenders.

U.S. B52 bombers kept up their daily raids on the North Vietnamese troops encircling Khe Sanh.

The big bombers flying four missions Monday afternoon and this morning also hit enemy troop positions 16 miles north of Ban Me Thuot, in the Central Highlands.

The allied commands reported two other ground actions Monday in which 56 of the enemy were killed. Troops of the U.S. 11th Light Infantry Brigade killed 11 guerrillas along the coast 310 miles northeast of Saigon while suffering no casualties. South Vietnamese infantrymen reported killing 45 enemy soldiers in a battle 35 miles southwest of Saigon and said their own casualties were light.

In Operation Quyet Thang, the biggest allied offensive of the war, government troops sweeping five miles north of Saigon's Tan Son Nhut air base, found a cache containing 80 122mm rockets, 1,200 mortar rounds, 138 warheads for bazooka-type rockets, 30 recoilless rifle shells and half a ton of TNT.

No major ground action was reported in the eight-day-old operation. The U.S. Command reported 821 enemy soldiers and 32 Americans have been killed, while a government spokesman said South Vietnamese losses have been light.

U.S. headquarters reported an Air Force F100 Super Sabre jet and two helicopters were shot down Monday.

Combat Plane Downed

The Super Sabre, 811th U.S. combat plane officially reported lost over North Vietnam, was downed in the panhandle 30 miles southwest of Dong Hoi. One crewman was rescued, the other was missing.

More Austerity for Britain

LONDON (AP)—The British public got ready for more bad news from the Labor government today—a program of wage and income freezes and heavy tax increases to curb the demand for imports.

This was the expectation of the government's new budget which Chancellor of the Ex-chequer Roy Jenkins unveils before the House of Commons this afternoon. It is a chief factor in the future of the pound and Britain's part of the British-American effort to restore stability to the monetary situation.

Suicide by Fire

KIRKVILLE, N. Y. (AP)—Wayne A. Heim, 36, of Kirkville, took his own life by immolation Monday, police reported.

Police said Heim had doused himself with gasoline. His body was recovered near a rural home near this community east of Syracuse.

Heim was a patient at Marcy State Hospital.

Poughkeepsie Head Quits

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y. (AP)—Theodore Maurer resigned as city manager of this Dutchess County seat Monday night and the resignation was accepted by the City Council.

Maurer, who had held the post since August 1964, gave no public indication of his reason for resigning.

There have been unofficial reports that he might be named to the vacant city manager post in Newburgh, Orange County.

The council named W. Robert Richards, who has been serving as urban renewal director, as acting city manager at $18,000 a year.

Could Mean Tax Increase

New Round of Gold Negotiations

WASHINGTON (AP) — The lash of the gold crisis has driven the White House and Congress into a new round of negotiations that could produce deep spending cuts and an income tax increase.

Nobody was talking much, but there is reason to think that a serious effort is under way to break the long deadlock on the issue of how big a spending cut President Johnson would have to accept to get his proposed 10 per cent income tax surcharge—or some variation of it.

The combined spending cut-tax hike will be expected to shrink the prospective $29 billion red-ink figure in the nation's accounts.

Such a reduction would be counted on to strengthen confidence in the dollar and therefore bolster the emergency measures agreed on last weekend to check speculation in gold and maintain the present system of exchange between major Western currencies.

Crisis Ebbing

Following those weekend measures, the gold crisis was ebbing around the world. The dollar strengthened and gold prices sagged in Europe's markets Monday in overnight response to the seven-power agreement halting government sales to speculators and all other private buyers.

In Paris, scene of frenzied speculative attacks on the dollar last week, the gold price slid to $40.10 an ounce after reaching $44.36 Friday. In Zurich and Frankfurt gold went for $33 to $41 an ounce in quiet trading.

The opening offer of an economy drive came from President Johnson's side—to cut the budget by about $9 billion in appropriations, which translates into about $4 billion in actual spending cuts during the year beginning July 1.

Johnson followed the offer up by calling in a Minneapolis speech for national austerity to win the Vietnam war and solve problems at home.

Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., of the House Ways and Means Committee, the most powerful congressional holdout against a tax hike, expressed cautious interest.

"That word austerity pleases me," he told reporters. But he added he had not been consulted on the $9 billion cut program. He would not say what he thought the spending cut figure should total but presumably it would be higher than Johnson's.

Chairman George H. Mahon, D-Tex., of the Appropriations Committee also declined to set a figure but said $9 billion was inadequate.

His committee wants to trim everything in sight, he said, and as a first step will battle a $215 million addition the Senate put on a $1.2 billion catch-all appropriation bill passed by the House.

Rep. John W. Byrnes of Wisconsin, senior Republican on the Ways and Means Committee, said nobody had consulted him and said he was skeptical of any administration offers to cut spending until they were examined in detail.

"I want to see the program," he said. "I want to see the color of their eyes."

In other developments marking the shift to a two-price system—a free market for privately held gold but continuation of the $35 price on sales between governments:

Exchange Cools Off

—The New York stock exchange bounded up 13 points in early Monday trading, but cooled off later for an average gain of 2.54 points.

—In Britain, the Wilson government was presenting to Commons today a budget that was expected to include heavy tax hikes plus wage and income

But no matter how it came about, the story as told by the anonymous sources placed Kennedy in the position of a political blackmailer and would-be usurper of presidential power. And the story was widely published in the newspapers.

Fresh from that clash, Johnson flew without prior announcement Monday from his Texas ranch to the Minneapolis convention of the National Farmers Union.

It was there, in the ballroom of a downtown hotel, that he really cut loose and, defending his Vietnam policies, extemporized in his most emotional, onswinging fashion. His targets clearly were Kennedy and McCarthy.

Declaring he has had more would-be secretaries of state than any President in modern times, Johnson pointedly asserted that he "welcomes suggestions from committees, from commissions, from Congress, from private individuals, from clubs"—in short, from anyone who thinks he has a solution to the Vietnam war.

But the real burden of his message, much of it extemporaneous, was to suggest the Communists are assaulting the very moral fiber of the nation by capitalizing, if not encouraging or organizing, antiwar dissent at home.

Could Mean Tax Increase

New Round of Gold Negotiations

WASHINGTON (AP) — The lash of the gold crisis has driven the White House and Congress into a new round of negotiations that could produce deep spending cuts and an income tax increase.

Nobody was talking much, but there is reason to think that a serious effort is under way to break the long deadlock on the issue of how big a spending cut President Johnson would have to accept to get his proposed 10 per cent income tax surcharge —or some variation of it.

The combined spending cut-tax hike will be expected to shrink the prospective $29 billion red-ink figure in the nation's accounts.

Such a reduction would be counted on to strengthen confidence in the dollar and therefore bolster the emergency measures agreed on last weekend to check speculation in gold and maintain the present system of exchange between major Western currencies.

Crisis Ebbing

Following those weekend measures, the gold crisis was ebbing around the world. The dollar strengthened and gold prices sagged in Europe's markets Monday in overnight response to the seven-power agreement halting government sales to speculators and all other private buyers.

In Paris, scene of frenzied speculative attacks on the dollar last week, the gold price slid to $40.10 an ounce after reaching $44.36 Friday. In Zurich and Frankfurt gold went for $33 to $41 an ounce in quiet trading.

The opening offer of an economy drive came from President Johnson's side—to cut the budget by about $9 billion in appropriations, which translates into about $4 billion in actual spending cuts during the year beginning July 1.

Johnson followed the offer up by calling in a Minneapolis speech for national austerity to win the Vietnam war and solve problems at home.

Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., of the House Ways and Means Committee, the most powerful congressional holdout against a tax hike, expressed cautious interest.

"That word austerity pleases me," he told reporters. But he added he had not been consulted on the $9 billion cut program. He would not say what he thought the spending cut figure should total but presumably it would be higher than Johnson's.

Chairman George H. Mahon, D-Tex., of the Appropriations Committee also declined to set a figure but said $9 billion was inadequate.

His committee wants to trim everything in sight, he said, and as a first step will battle a $215 million addition the Senate put on a $1.2 billion catch-all appropriation bill passed by the House.

Rep. John W. Byrnes of Wisconsin, senior Republican on the Ways and Means Committee, said nobody had consulted him and said he was skeptical of any administration offers to cut spending until they were examined in detail.

"I want to see the program," he said. "I want to see the color of their eyes."

In other developments marking the shift to a two-price system—a free market for privately held gold but continuation of the $35 price on sales between governments:

More Austerity for Britain

LONDON (AP)—The British public got ready for more bad news from the Labor government today—a program of wage and income freezes and heavy tax increases to curb the demand for imports.

This was the expectation of the government's new budget which Chancellor of the Ex-chequer Roy Jenkins unveils before the House of Commons this afternoon. It is a chief factor in the future of the pound and Britain's part of the British-American effort to restore stability to the monetary situation.

Suicide by Fire

KIRKVILLE, N. Y. (AP)—Wayne A. Heim, 36, of Kirkville, took his own life by immolation Monday, police reported.

Police said Heim had doused himself with gasoline. His body was recovered near a rural home near this community east of Syracuse.

Heim was a patient at Marcy State Hospital.

Poughkeepsie Head Quits

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y. (AP)—Theodore Maurer resigned as city manager of this Dutchess County seat Monday night and the resignation was accepted by the City Council.

Maurer, who had held the post since August 1964, gave no public indication of his reason for resigning.

There have been unofficial reports that he might be named to the vacant city manager post in Newburgh, Orange County.

The council named W. Robert Richards, who has been serving as urban renewal director, as acting city manager at $18,000 a year.

Seek to Buy Stuyvesant Hotel For Senior Citizen Housing

By ALBERT J. CAWEIN

A project to provide additional senior citizen housing through the efforts of a newly formed non-profit corporation will depend on negotiations for the purchase of the Stuyvesant Hotel at John and Fair Streets, it revealed today.

A plan is under study by Stuyvesant Apartments Inc., for the purchase of the hotel for $130,000 and remodeling into 50 or 75 units for low or middle income senior citizens.

Preliminary plans of the new corporation would include extensive renovations estimated to cost $450,000. All funds would be made available through the New York Housing Finance Agency when and if the program for purchase and remodeling is approved by that agency.

Sidney Treinkman is the present hotel operator. The new non-profit corporation is awaiting approval of its incorporation application from the Supreme Court in Albany.

Officers of the new corporation will include former Kingston mayor William F. Edelmuth, president. Edelmuth, president of Gateway Industries Inc., was mayor from 1942 to 1947. Edelmuth also serves as a county legislator representing the City of Kingston.

Vice president will be V. James Andretta Sr., president of Colony Liquor Distributors Inc. John T. Sullivan, executive director of Gateways was named secretary; Harry du Bois Frey, former general manager of The Freeman is treasurer; George M. Jacobson, president of State Fish Corp., was named trustee, and John L. Larkin, attorney for the corporation. All are serving without pay.

Need Albany Approval

The sale of the 57-year-old hotel can be finalized as soon as the newly formed corporation is approved by Albany and the state agency approves the plans and purchase.

Preliminary plans for remodeling would include air conditioning of each apartment, an electric range, refrigerator and bath. Each apartment would be carpeted and the elevator in operation would be modernized and changed over to self service.

The apartments would be made available to low and middle income senior citizens and current plans call for rent range from $48 to $75 per month.

Gateway Industries Inc., Field Court served as the unofficial sponsor of the project.

The new corporation would retain the main floor of the hotel as a game room and meeting hall for all senior citizens of the community.

Alexander Yosman, director of Kingston Housing Authority served as technical adviser during all planning sessions and negotiations with New York Housing Finance Agency for the funds to operate.

WILLIAM F. EDELMUTH

A service charge to the City of Kingston for providing the usual services such as police, fire, refuse collection and others will be offered by the new corporation in later negotiations.

The hotel was purchased in 1966 from the Small Business Administration by Treinkman, former owner and operator of the Huntington Hotel in this city and it was operated as the Stuyvesant Motor Hotel. In November of 1965 an auction was held to sell the hotel pursuant to a judgment of foreclosure and the hotel was purchased by the Small Business Administration for $80,000.

1911 Construction

The Stuyvesant was constructed in 1911 and operated by the Ulster County Hotel Corp., under the management of James S. Winne, president. In the mid-50's the hotel had been owned and controlled by various hotel men, including the late Frederick T. Eisler, who served as managing director until his death.

Subsequently the hotel was sold to a combine of local business and professional men known as the Hudson Valley Hoteleries Inc., with Treinkman as manager.

The hotel was being renovated in 1956 when on April 18 a fire which started in a second-floor room swept through the building causing an estimated $200,000 in damage.

Lloyd Splits Votes For Bell and Savago

By LYNN MULVANEY

The Town of Lloyd GOP Committee, meeting last night, pulled a surprise play when it split 12 of its 14 Assembly delegate votes right down the middle giving six to H. Clark Bell and six to Peter J. Savago. Two committeemen were absent.

The move was significant because previously Assembly GOP candidate Joseph Martorana announced at the time of his withdrawal from the contest that he was assigning the Lloyd block of 14 votes to Savago. This was reportedly done without an official vote of the commitee.

Address Committee

Both Bell, Kingston attorney and former Constitutional Convention delegate, and Savago, chairman of the county legislature, addressed the Lloyd committee last night. At the conclusion of their presentations, the committee met privately, balloted secretly and disclosed the 6-6 vote.

Later it was reported from the Savago camp, that a telephone call from one of the absent committeemen gave another vote to Savago.

Adding this to the unofficial Freeman count of delegate strength, today's tally reads, Bell 87, Savago 70.

There are still a number of towns to be heard from, however—plus the City of Kingston, which reportedly meets Thursday night.

Rosendale will caucus tonight, Esopus will take a vote later this week and Marlboro, Shandaken and Plattekill are still to be heard from.

Mayone Endorsed

The Town of Ulster GOP, which has already given its block of votes to Bell, announced today its endorsement of Thomas Mayone for sheriff. Mayone is opposed in his race for the nomination to unseat the incumbent Democrat William B. Martin by Town of Kingston Town Justice Robert Ferrigan.

In Esopus, the town Republican Club will discuss GOP candidates for the Ulster County ticket at a meeting at 8 in the Town Hall at Port Ewen.

President Sol Rosenthal, Esopus councilman invites all Republicans and Independent voters to attend.

Discussion will be held concerning the publishing of the Town of Esopus "Excerpts." The club's nominating committee will also report.

Cases Adjourned In City Court

Three Kingston youths, accused of making an apparently false statement to the police, had their cases adjourned for a preliminary hearing March 28 today in city court before Judge Hubert A. Richter.

The three are Donna Sickler, 19, of 101 Hunter Street, Thomas Koeppen, 16, of 41 Brewster Street and Maureen Grant, 21, of 16 North Wilbur Avenue.

According to police sources, the three are accused of giving what the fire department would consider a false alarm. The incident allegedly took place on March 5 when police were called in on an assault charge which proved non-existant.

The Sickler girl is represented by Ward Ingalsbe Jr. the Grant girl by Michael Nardone and Koeppen by William Pretch.

Track Blocked

CLIFTON SPRINGS, N. Y. (AP) — A single track secondary branch of the Penn Central Railroad remained blocked today after four cars of a freight train derailed in this Ontario County community.

Police said the six-car freight was en route from Waterloo to Geneva and tore up about 300 feet of track in the heart of the community.

No one was reported injured.

The train, police said, had three loaded cars.

The derailment, they said was apparently caused by an open switchbox.

Ulster GOP Meets

The Town of Ulster Republican Club will hold its regular meeting 8 p. m. Thursday, March 28, at the Lake Katrine Grange Hall with Richard Nace, president, presiding.

Spring dance committees will give their reports. The event will be held May 11. Other standing committees will report also.

Peggy Van Wagenen and Jennie Miles are in charge of refreshments this month.

REPAIR WORK STOPPED — Work on the road and bridge connecting Routes 28 and 28A over the dividing weir at the Ashokan Reservoir Dam has stopped. The bridge (above) has been closed for about a year while road repairs and work on the bridge have been carried on. Closing of the road had cut off the only means of getting across the reservoir and motorists have had to travel some 14 miles to get around the water supply area. Assemblyman Kenneth L. Wilson of Ulster County announced last Oct. 6 that Mayor John V. Lindsay's office had agreed to repair the road. The work is expected to be completed this summer. (Freeman photo by Haines)

State GOP Will Act If Rocky Gives Okay

By CHARLES DUMAS

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — The Republican State Committee, meeting in Albany next Tuesday to renominate U.S. Sen. Jacob K. Javits, also may be asked to endorse Gov. Rockefeller for president.

It depends upon whether Rockefeller becomes a declared candidate by then by allowing his name to remain on Oregon's presidential primary ballot. He has until Friday, March 22, to decide.

If his decision is yes, GOP sources said, the committee probably will be invited to adopt a resolution declaring its support for a Rockefeller candidacy.

The move would not commit New York's 92 delegates to the Republican national convention, since they are to be elected later in the June 18 primary. But it would have the psychological effect of putting the New York organization on record for Rockefeller and tend to discourage raids on the delegation by Republicans partial to Richard M. Nixon.

Plans Announced

That was the outlook as State Chairman Charles A. Schoeneck announced plans Monday for the nominating session.

Besides designating Javits for a third term in the Senate, the committee is expected to renominate Judge Adrian P. Burke of Manhattan for another 14-year term on the Court of Appeals, the state's highest tribunal.

Although Burke is a Democrat, the Republicans intend to respect the long - standing custom of returning incumbent judges to the bench, regardless of political affiliation.

The committee must await Rockefeller's decision on Oregon before charting its own course in the presidential race.

March 22 is the deadline for filing a formal withdrawal from the Oregon race, and Rockefeller has said that he will decide by then whether to become a declared candidate.

Up until a few weeks ago, there was talk of designating Rockefeller as a favorite - son candidate, the traditional device for holding a state delegation in line.

There is some sentiment for Nixon in the New York GOP, especially in conservative areas upstate. But Rockefeller is in firm control of the state committee and his agents could be expected to contain any pro - Nixon uprising.

Rockefeller commanded strong support from the committee in 1964, when he made an unsuccessful bid for the nomination, despite some signs of sympathy among the rank and file for Barry M. Goldwater.

Required by Law

The committee meeting is required by the state's new direct-primary law, which for the first time provides for contests for statewide office. The state committees make their choices first and disgruntled contenders may challenge the selections in the June primary.

The Democratic State Committee has scheduled its meeting for March 30 in New York City. Party leaders have not settled yet on an opponent for Javits.

Javits' renomination by the GOP is assured, and Schoeneck said he expected "no trouble whatsoever."

As for action on the presidential picture, Schoeneck said "there might be something — I just don't know now."

10th Ward Committee Reports Progress

The Tenth Ward Action Committee met last night in the Clinton Avenue Methodist Church to review a report by the Kingston Housing Codes Commission on code enforcement in the ward. Chairman Charles Campbell told The Freeman this morning his action group "feels definite progress is being made."

Campbell noted that there were "still plenty of complaints" from residents in the Tenth Ward but that the action committee was proving effective, it was "getting action from city officials over ward problems."

Another meeting is scheduled April 9 with Alderman-at-Large T. Robert Gallo and several other aldermen including the ward's representative, Republican Peter Fisher. April 15, the housing code commission, under the direction of George E. Radcliffe, will meet with members of the action committee.

Last night's meeting dealt with a discussion of a report by the codes commission on its work in the ward. Inspections were made in the fall of last year at 71 Green Street, 162 Clinton Avenue, 160 Clinton Avenue, 83-85 Van Buren Street, 33 Henry Street, 60 Cedar Street, 73 Franklin Street and 96 Clinton Avenue.

The latter address was the subject of some controversy during last year's election and almost lead to the implementation of a seldom used city law which allows the city to take title to a rundown multiple residence, rehabilitate it, charge rent to pay the cost of repair and eventually return it to the original owner.

The commission report states that as of November of last year 80 per cent of all violations at 96 Clinton Avenue had been corrected.

Sentence Dunn In County Court

Donald A. Dunn, 34 of Newburgh, convicted in mid-February in the attempted murder and assault of a 49-year-old Plattekill man in March 1967 was sentenced in county court Monday to 12½ to 20 years on the murder attempt and 5 to 10 years on each of the assault, second degree counts, terms to run concurrently. County Judge Raymond J. Mino imposed sentence.

The jury reached a guilty verdict Feb. 13 after a trial which heard many pleas from Defense Attorney Hubert A. Richter that the defendant was deprived of his constitutional rights.

Testimony at the trial revealed that Elmer Strickland returned to his Plattekill home at about 9 p. m. on March 31, 1967 and as he entered a door in the darkness, he was met by a shotgun blast which authorities said was fired by Dunn from a 12-gauge shotgun. As Strickland turned to flee, a second blast was fired in his direction.

Strickland's wife, Lorraine, 38, according to the testimony was having an alleged affair with the defendant.

Richter throughout the trial attempted to convince the jury that Dunn's constitutional right to remain silent during interrogation by state police officers was violated. His motions to that effect were denied several times by Judge Mino.

Assistant District Attorney Philip W. Shunk prosecuted the case for the district attorney's office.

No More Taxes

With substantial reductions in the state's Medicaid program and the resultant savings in the administration of county government, Ulster County Legislators now should forget about the county sales tax and devote their energies to efficiency and economy in the operation of county business.

The cost of the Medicaid program was said to have threatened the solvency of the units of local government and even of the state itself. Upstate districts pressed for the cuts to reduce the financial burden of taxpayers.

Just because Mayor Garraghan and his Common Council put over a sales tax in the City of Kingston is no reason why this regressive tax should be extended to the rest of the county.

The state also should consider cutting taxes especially the 20 per cent surcharge on personal income taxes proposed in Governor Rockefeller's $5.5 billion budget. This additional tax will fall heavily on virtually all wage and salary earners in the state.

There is only one way in which we can prevent the imposition of this proposed 20 per cent increase on personal income taxes and that is for the taxpayers to let their representatives know they want no part of it. The need for holding down the pressures which tend to force expansion of our state spending program must be stresed. Legislators can eliminate this additional tax by cutting proposed expenditures.

$4 Billion Hangover

The National Council on Alcoholism estimates that more than five workers in 100—or 5.3 per cent of all workers—are alcoholics. They cost industry and business $4 billion and more a year—in absenteeism, off-the-job accidents, fringe benefits, below par performance and loss of valuable personnel. That's a huge hangover in anybody's language.

The National Industrial Conference Board, assisted by a $40,000 insurance grant, is updating a 10-year-old study on alcoholism in industry to furnish American business with information on which to lay its plans for cutting this useless business expense.

Others are working with labor management to get the two sides together on a policy for handling and treating hard-drinking workers. The major problem is in identifying the alcoholics. Management tends to hide them. Unions get involved on the grievance level.

More than 300 large firms offer an employe program to combat alcoholism. Most frequently, alcoholics are men in their 50s and usually from broken homes. They are identified by faltering work performance, indicated by absenteeism, lateness and sloppiness on the job.

Industry's method of meeting alcoholism is not to diagnose or treat it, but to recognize that a problem exists. They must overcome the reluctance to refer the worker to a doctor. Found early enough, the condition can yield to medical treatment.

The Generation Gap

Recognizing that the generation gap as it exists today is deplorable, David Rockefeller, president of the Chase Manhattan Bank, nevertheless told Chicago University's annual management conference that business men must take positive action to overcome the disaffection of youth.

"What we as businessmen must do is to demonstrate through action that the profit motive, properly employed, constitutes a powerful tool with which to achieve the goals that the best of our young people profess to want," Rockefeller said. "We must show beyond dispute that business can become the engine of progress in such areas as civil rights, poverty, urban decay and pollution of the environment."

No corporate leader can ignore the changing social, political and intellectual standards. America of tomorrow will reflect to some degree the aspirations, convictions and skepticism of the young people of today. Angry denunciations will not cause them to vanish.

Rockefeller's plea to business to heed the signs of the times is, fortunately, timely. The extreme left view, that American society is evil and must be destroyed before it can be reconstructed is not the majority view. The moderates, however, feel that American society stands convicted of not practicing the principles which it professes.

There is time to win the youthful majority through constructive work within existing institutions, as being more of a means of realizing their ideals than destructive protest can do.

Household help has become so scarce, Secretary of Labor Willard Wirtz has begun a course of training through a Household Management concern with a grant of $277,185 plus $40,000 training allowance. That's a lot of money to train 100 houseworkers at $3,171.85 each. Will it upgrade them out of the means of most households to hire them?

David Lawrence Says

National Primary Would Be True Voice of People

WASHINGTON — The political conspiracy in restraint of a free choice of Presidential nominees by the national party conventions has reached a climax.

The American people today are being given a dramatic demonstration of how delegates are handpicked by small cliques of organization politicians in various states. They are attracted either by the promise of huge sums of private money for campaign expenses or by prospective rewards from the winning administration. It is at times a contest between millionaires with large funds of their own or between aspirants who are supplied privately with the money needed to carry on the electioneering in a few states where primaries are held.

Only 11 states have presidential-preference primaries, and the results in these elections may or may not be a true reflection of nationwide opinion. But the would-be nominees evidently think the showing they make is bound to influence public opinion elsewhere.

The people would have a better chance to express themselves under a system whereby a single national primary would be held on the same day in all states. It could be stipulated by law that the parties whose nominees obtained the two highest totals would be eligible for the balloting on election day.

Today's nominating system is a kind of Gallup poll. The assumption is that a sample taken in a few states is enough for the national convention of each party to consider in making a selection.

What, however, did the New Hampshire primary, for example, mean?

Senator McCarthy's name was printed on the ballot, but President Johnson's name had to be written in. This is a complex, especially where there are voting machines. Senator Robert F. Kennedy of New York, who wasn't in the contest, has announced that he will enter certain state primaries but will stay out of others. Former Vice President Nixon polled the biggest vote of anybody. Governor Rockefeller now indicates he wants to get into the presidential race against him. About all that last week's primary election did was to emphasize the weakness of the whole system of selecting delegates to a national convention.

How much do the people know at present about viewpoints of the contestants in the race, with the possible exception of the stand President Johnson has taken? Mr. Nixon speaks hopefully of how he might be able to end the war in Vietnam. Senator Kennedy deplores many of the Johnson policies, and says he is motivated by a desire to discusse the issues rather than personalities. Senator McCarthy is mobilizing the anti-war vote.

Actually, the American people don't really know what any of the candidates intend to do if elected. The President himself declares he will adhere to a firm line. Senator Kennedy says that he can do a better job in international as well as national affairs, and points to his experience when his brother was president. Senator McCarthy, of course, has had no executive background. Richard Nixon refers with pride to his eight years of intimate association with President Eisenhower, and, as vice president, he acquired an intimate knowledge of how the problems confronting a president are handled. Governor Rockefeller has for several years been the head of the government of a large state, but he hasn't as yet expressed himself on national issues.

If there were a nationwide primary, each candidate would have to explain fully his proposed policies or courses of action, and discuss them in far more detail than the vague and abstract statements being heard thus far.

At least the people of all the 50 states of the union would have a chance in a national primary to express their will by direct vote simultaneously. This would be the true voice of the people. The candidates would be chosen under a system of fair competition, without restraints imposed by two competing candidates acting together to block a third. For public opinion in America has long been opposed to monopoly, especially by political bosses.

Douglas' Valuable Support To LBJ on Two Major Fronts

By JACK MILLER
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former Sen. Paul H. Douglas, once a liberal thorn in the side of then-Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson, now provides valuable support for the President on two major battlefronts: The cities and the Vietnam war.

Still hard-working and healthy as he approaches his 76th birthday on March 26, Douglas heads the President's National Commission on Urban Problems and is founder and co-chairman of a committee of prominent Americans backing the war effort.

Douglas has led urban commission hearings in 18 cities around the country seeking ways to revitalize the depressed cities.

The commission's report isn't due until year's end. But most of Douglas' recommendations to date have followed Johnson policies. And Douglas praised the recent presidential message on the cities to Congress.

Douglass says he formed the Vietnam citizens committee without prompting from Johnson.

The one-time economics professor, who enlisted in the Marine Corps in 1943 as a 50-year-old private, drew to the new group such distinguished retired military leaders and statesmen as former Presidents Harry S. Truman and Dwight D. Eisenhower and General of the Army Omar Bradley.

For 'Sensible Road'

Avoiding the stance of either all-out opponents of the war or those calling for military esculation, the committeee in its initial statement last Oct. 25 generally endorsed the President's war policy, saying: "We favor a sensible road between capitulation and the indiscriminate use of raw power."

Using almost the same words as administration officials in interpreting this year's massive, coordinated Communist attacks on South Vietnamese cities, Douglas told a reporter:

"My own view is that the Communists failed in their objective in that they did not get any appreciable support from the people of the cities."

Explaining in an interview his support for the Vietnam war, the tall, plain-featured man with crew-cut white hair said, "I happen to believe in collective security. I believed in it against Hitler, Russia and Korea, and I think this Vietnam is part of the same family.

In the Senate, the Illinois Democrat earned the adoration of liberals for his leadership on domestic reforms.

During an 18-year Senate career that ended in 1966 when he was beaten by Republican Charles H. Percy, Douglas led the drive for much of the landmark social legislation of the last generation: Minimum wages, medicare, federal aid to education and — especially — civil rights.

CR Was Issue

Civil rights once was a battle issue between Johnson and Douglas. As one who was close to both men recall it, Douglas constantly refused to budge from his principles to make way for a Johnsonian consensus. Fuming, Johnson used to repeat over and over to friends that "politics is the art of the possible."

The associate recalls that "Johnson greatly disliked Douglas, and Douglas had no great affection for Johnson."

There is no indication today that the relationship—despite Douglas' support of key Johnson policies — has flowered into friendship.

Douglas said his current activities haven't drawn any words of gratitude from Johnson. And while Douglas occasionally attends a White House function, he said he has purposely avoided personal contact with the President to avoid implications the citizens group stand on Vietnam is influenced by Johnson.

Bobby Kennedy Has Been Bitter At Johnson for Eight Years

(Editor's Note — The brass ring, good for a rough ride on the Washington Merry-Go-Round, today goes to Sen. Robert E. Kennedy.)

WASHINGTON — When Sen. Robert F. Kennedy was a small boy, his father drilled into him and his brothers the idea that one of them was to become President of the United States. Old Joe Kennedy was a persistent papa. He was schooled in the tradition that money could get you a long way in life, especially when coupled with Irish charm; and he was determined, as the son of Irish immigrants, that one of his boys should break the ban on a Catholic President.

His eldest son, Joseph P. Kennedy Jr., was killed during the war, flying off the coast of Portugal. But later Joe saw his second son, John F. Kennedy, attain this dream, only to see him shot down tragically in Dallas before the end of his first term.

The night of the assassination, the Kennedy clan met in the White House until a very late hour planning how to get the White House back in the hands of a Kennedy.

It was then that a book was discussed telling the facts of the assassination. The book, "The Death of a President," by William Manchester, distorted many of the facts, especially the report that Lyndon Johnson had inveigled John F. Kennedy into going to Texas.

The facts were just the opposite. But the bitterness shown by Bobby and the refusal of Jackie ever to set foot in the White House while the Johnsons occupy it have given wide circulation to this myth, and many Europeans still believe that the Vice President helped plot President Kennedy's death.

Obviously this led to the deepening of the bitterness between Bobby Kennedy and the man he would like to replace.

Beginning of the Feud

Actually, the Bobby-LBJ feud had begun long before John F. Kennedy's assassination. Probably it began on that fateful day in Los Angeles when the Democratic convention nominated JFK for President and when Kennedy, a practical politician, realized that in order to win he needed a strong running mate. When he tapped Lyndon Johnson, it was against the advice of his brother.

The job of Vice President is always difficult, since the Vice President has little to do. Presiding over the Senate is a formality usually allocated to freshman Senators, and no Vice President enjoys it for more than a few minutes a day. Therefore, Lyndon Johnson, a restless and dynamic former Senate Majority Leader, was most unhappy. And what contributed to his unhappiness was a series of newspaper articles which everyone in Washington suspected came from Bobby Kennedy telling how Lyndon was a fifth wheel. The Kennedy's it was reported, considered him a Texas clown.

Attempts at Reconciliation

The public knew little about this bitterness but those inside the administration did. And efforts were made to do something about it.

Averell Harriman, a good friend of Bobby Kennedy's talked to him. And in the Justice Department Ramsey Clark, who had grown up in a Texas family which Lyndon Johnson frequently visited, urged his boss, Attorney General Kennedy, to invite the Vice President over to the Justice Department for an occasional staff luncheon. The Attorney General did not take the hint. Nor did the Vice President take kindly to a suggestion that he invite the Attorney General down the Potomac on the yacht Sequoia.

All this occurred before the assassination. After the tragedy of Dallas, Bobby Kennedy disappeared for several days. He became distraught, red-eyed and unshaven. No man mourned the death of his brother more than the man who was determined eventually to succeed him.

President Johnson, trying to get Bobby's mind off the death of his brother, sent him to Indonesia to negotiate a cease-fire with Malaysia, where he did a good job.

Johnson also kept Bobby on as Attorney General, despite reports — probably erroneous —that Bobby had dredged up the Bobby Baker case to embarrass Johnson and was tapping the wires of Baker's friend, Fred Black, in the Sheraton-Carlton Hotel, also to embarrass the President.

When it became apparent that Bobby wanted to run as Vice President in 1964, however, LBJ drew the line. He did not want the man who hated him most serving as his Vice President. So on the recommendation of Clark Clifford, he called Bobby in and told him that he was going to bar as Vice President anyone who was serving in the Cabinet.

Bobby was furious. He brooded for a few weeks, resigned from the Cabinet, then jumped into the New York Senate race to win a place which would keep him in the public eye. He has been in the public eye ever since, determined eventually to achieve his father's ambition and put a Kennedy back in the White House.

Forgotten Man

The recent conference called by Gov. Nelson Rockefeller in his Fifth Avenue apartment, for advice on whether he should run for President, was attended by top brass, both past and present, of the Republican party.

The guest list included Meade Alcorn of Connecticut, GOP National Chairman 1957-59; Sen. Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania, Chairman when Dewey was a candidate; Leonard Hall, Chairman during the Eisenhower days; and Ray Bliss of Ohio, current National Chairman. Also present was former Congressman Bill Miller of New York, who ran for Vice President on the Barry Goldwater ticket.

Gov. Rockefeller went round the room asking every man his opinion. It came Miller's turn to advise. "As a guy who lost by 17 million votes," said Miller, "I don't know that my advice is worth anything.

"But this is the first time anybody has bothered to consult me since the election, and I want to state that I'm grateful for your recognition."

Henry J. Taylor Says

U.S. Is a Demoralized Nation

Since the New Hampshire primary the knife-throwing gentry in President Johnson's own Democratic party are increasingly busy at their fratricidal business of carving him up.

He appears fallen like a lion, surrounded by a hungry pack. First they gather cautiously, ready to flee. Then, gaining strength from one another, they rush to devour the giant-that-was, saying, "Why, he wasn't such a big lion, after all."

Yet the whole Washington cabal seems to have fallen out of phase with the folks back home. Everywhere I go politics, as politics, appears to be in the doghouse. It seems obvious that people couldn't care less what the politicians are doing to one another.

The whole country, I think, is mentally tired of trying to figure things out. All I can find from one end of the country to the other is a feeling of confusion, anxiety and impatience — a nagging feeling that, after all, the country's sacrifices have really gotton it nowhere and that no matter what we do we are somehow being thrown away.

One of the most damaging features of what is called Mr. Johnson's "credibility gap" is that millions, incensed by the reversal of White House pledges, have stopped believing that our political system is honorable and has a respectable meaning.

Today's movement toward nihilism, anarchy and alienation — not alone among many people —and the cynicism that accompanies it, never before typical in our country, are in large part due to the undermined faith of our people.

The Kennedy and Johnson reversals of their 1960 and 1964 promises were, and still are, carried forth by deception, both in domestic policy (both went on and on to say, say, say, "I believe in a balanced budget") and foreign policy (Cuba, Laos, Berlin, Vietnam). Doubt is an accumulative process and today's gnawing, corrosive lack of confidence in the government is the inevitable result.

This adds up to a demoralized nation. The individual feels isolated—confused within himself by the nation's leaders, their actions, their policies, their results, and the individual's own inability to support the nation's course.

Another gap compounds this. This gap is the apparently irreconcilable gap between the objectives of Mr. Johnson's administration and the willingness of the people to support these. You feel the corrosive effect creeping into the bone structure of the country.

The latest Gallup poll surveying 1,898 local Republican leaders indicates that, although the Vietnam war is the most dominant single issue, domestic problems—collectively — show up stronger than the war as an issue.

The top seven election campaign arguments named by the leaders, in order of frequency of their mention, are the Vietnam war, the high cost of living, Mr. Johnson's domestic programs, too much government spending and taxing, too much power for Johnson, loss of states' rights by Washington's intrusions and a whole brimming basketful of foreign policy criticisms.

For the first time there is substantial evidence that great numbers of Americans are alarmed about "government by executive order" and increasingly alarmed.

Apparently millions now fear that Mr. Johnson is running a dangerous one-man show.

The boomerang result is not softened by Mr. Johnson's undependability for truth-telling. This reaches dramatic heights in the finding among most polls that a majority of the American people do not believe they are being told, or ever have been told, the full truth about the Vietnam war.

A nation cannot be stronger than its beliefs. Its beliefs cannot be manufactured to suit a moment, a government, a policy or a person. Demoralization comes when people find themselves unsupported by tested convictions of their own and by a government environment they cannot believe in, rally to and respect.

Mr. Johnson is admittedly a political animal. But he's doing things the hard way by playing politics today. If the President would simply quit playing politics for awhile, and let the country see him doing only his level best in his immense and heartbreaking job, and let the chips fall where they may, the country would rally behind him in a way that is otherwise totally impossible.

Massive Summer Investment

By HARRY GOLDEN Jr.
Chicago Sun-Times Special

CHICAGO, March 16—Mayor Richard J. Daley outlined yesterday a massive investment to stem unrest this summer.

He told of his hope for an expanded supply of jobs, extra schooling, recreation and counseling to cope with what he called "the most difficult social problem in the history of our nation.

Schools Supt. James F. Redmond and spokesmen of other public and private agencies detailed their plans for a multi-million-dollar effort at a meeting here.

Deton J. Brooks Jr., director of the Chicago committee on urban opportunity, predicted the activities will touch the lives of 800,000.

Agencies still are developing details of the summer activities, and funds for many of them are not yet in hand.

Morgan F. Murphy, who heads the mayor's summer jobs for youth committee, disclosed a goal of providing 20,000 jobs in private industry —11,200 more than were found there last year.

The proposed facilities and activities include 32 more swimming polls, costing more than $1,000,000; rides on fire boats: day-care centers in neighborhood vacant lots and alleys: police-supervised dances and boxing bouts, and park-sponsored dramas and concerts.

The mayor said:

"We will never solve anything by treating symptoms. The answers lie in positive programs that improve the living conditions of every family in every neighborhood."

He was mildly critical of news agencies, whose executives attended the meeting.

"Much of the media were not particularly interested in positive and constructive programs," he complained. "To many of them, there was only one program, and that was in the area of law enforcement."

Deputy Mayor David Sathl, who will try to co-ordinate the various efforts and eliminate overlapping, said a series of neighborhood planning conferences will begin next month.

The "anticipated program" presented by Redmond would cost $31,936,760 of this, largely by federal agencies.

No More Taxes

With substantial reductions in the state's Medicaid program and the resultant savings in the administration of county government, Ulster County Legislators now should forget about the county sales tax and devote their energies to efficiency and economy in the operation of county business.

The cost of the Medicaid program was said to have threatened the solvency of the units of local government and even of the state itself. Upstate districts pressed for the cuts to reduce the financial burden of taxpayers.

Just because Mayor Garraghan and his Common Council put over a sales tax in the City of Kingston is no reason why this regressive tax should be extended to the rest of the county.

The state also should consider cutting taxes especially the 20 per cent surcharge on personal income taxes proposed in Governor Rockefeller's $5.5 billion budget. This additional tax will fall heavily on virtually all wage and salary earners in the state.

There is only one way in which we can prevent the imposition of this proposed 20 per cent increase on personal income taxes and that is for the taxpayers to let their representatives know they want no part of it. The need for holding down the pressures which tend to force expansion of our state spending program must be stresed. Legislators can eliminate this additional tax by cutting proposed expenditures.

$4 Billion Hangover

The National Council on Alcoholism estimates that more than five workers in 100—or 5.3 per cent of all workers—are alcoholics. They cost industry and business $4 billion and more a year—in absenteeism, off-the-job accidents, fringe benefits, below par performance and loss of valuable personnel. That's a huge hangover in anybody's language.

The National Industrial Conference Board, assisted by a $40,000 insurance grant, is updating a 10-year-old study on alcoholism in industry to furnish American business with information on which to lay its plans for cutting this useless business expense.

Others are working with labor management to get the two sides together on a policy for handling and treating hard-drinking workers. The major problem is in identifying the alcoholics. Management tends to hide them. Unions get involved on the grievance level.

More than 300 large firms offer an employe program to combat alcoholism. Most frequently, alcoholics are men in their 50s and usually from broken homes. They are identified by faltering work performance, indicated by absenteeism, lateness and sloppiness on the job.

Industry's method of meeting alcoholism is not to diagnose or treat it, but to recognize that a problem exists. They must overcome the reluctance to refer the worker to a doctor. Found early enough, the condition can yield to medical treatment.

The Generation Gap

Recognizing that the generation gap as it exists today is deplorable, David Rockefeller, president of the Chase Manhattan Bank, nevertheless told Chicago University's annual management conference that business men must take positive action to overcome the disaffection of youth.

"What we as businessmen must do is to demonstrate through action that the profit motive, properly employed, constitutes a powerful tool with which to achieve the goals that the best of our young people profess to want," Rockefeller said. "We must show beyond dispute that business can become the engine of progress in such areas as civil rights, poverty, urban decay and pollution of the environment."

No corporate leader can ignore the changing social, political and intellectual standards. America of tomorrow will reflect to some degree the aspirations, convictions and skepticism of the young people of today. Angry denunciations will not cause them to vanish.

Rockefeller's plea to business to heed the signs of the times is, fortunately, timely. The extreme left view, that American society is evil and must be destroyed before it can be reconstructed is not the majority view. The moderates, however, feel that American society stands convicted of not practicing the principles which it professes.

There is time to win the youthful majority through constructive work within existing institutions, as being more of a means of realizing their ideals than destructive protest can do.

Household help has become so scarce, Secretary of Labor Willard Wirtz has begun a course of training through a Household Management concern with a grant of $277,185 plus $40,000 training allowance. That's a lot of money to train 100 houseworkers at $3,171.85 each. Will it upgrade them out of the means of most households to hire them?

First in Line

National Primary Would Be True Voice of People

WASHINGTON — The political conspiracy in restraint of a free choice of Presidential nominees by the national party conventions has reached a climax.

The American people today are being given a dramatic demonstration of how delegates are handpicked by small cliques of organization politicians in various states. They are attracted either by the promise of huge sums of private money for campaign expenses or by prospective rewards from the winning administration. It is at times a contest between millionaires with large funds of their own or between aspirants who are supplied privately with the money needed to carry on the electioneering in a few states where primaries are held.

Only 11 states have presidential-preference primaries, and the results in these elections may or may not be a true reflection of nationwide opinion. But the would-be nominees evidently think the showing they make is bound to influence public opinion elsewhere.

The people would have a better chance to express themselves under a system whereby a single national primary would be held on the same day in all states. It could be stipulated by law that the parties whose nominees obtained the two highest totals would be eligible for the balloting on election day.

Today's nominating system is a kind of Gallup poll. The assumption is that a sample taken in a few states is enough for the national convention of each party to consider in making a selection.

What, however, did the New Hampshire primary, for example, mean?

Senator McCarthy's name was printed on the ballot, but President Johnson's name had to be written in. This is a complex, especially where there are voting machines. Senator Robert F. Kennedy of New York, who wasn't in the contest, has announced that he will enter certain state primaries but will stay out of others. Former Vice President Nixon polled the biggest vote of anybody. Governor Rockefeller now indicates he wants to get into the presidential race against him. About all that last week's primary election did was to emphasize the weakness of the whole system of selecting delegates to a national convention.

How much do the people know at present about viewpoints of the contestants in the race, with the possible exception of the stand President Johnson has taken? Mr. Nixon speaks hopefully of how he might be able to end the war in Vietnam. Senator Kennedy deplores many of the Johnson policies, and says he is motivated by a desire to discusse the issues rather than personalities. Senator McCarthy is mobilizing the anti-war vote.

Actually, the American people don't really know what any of the candidates intend to do if elected. The President himself declares he will adhere to a firm line. Senator Kennedy says that he can do a better job in international as well as national affairs, and points to his experience when his brother was president. Senator McCarthy, of course, has had no executive background. Richard Nixon refers with pride to his eight years of intimate association with President Eisenhower, and, as vice president, he acquired an intimate knowledge of how the problems confronting a president are handled. Governor Rockefeller has for several years been the head of the government of a large state, but he hasn't as yet expressed himself on national issues.

If there were a nationwide primary, each candidate would have to explain fully his proposed policies or courses of action, and discuss them in far more detail than the vague and abstract statements being heard thus far.

At least the people of all the 50 states of the union would have a chance in a national primary to express their will by direct vote simultaneously. This would be the true voice of the people. The candidates would be chosen under a system of fair competition, without restraints imposed by two competing candidates acting together to block a third. For public opinion in America has long been opposed to monopoly, especially by political bosses.

Douglas' Valuable Support To LBJ on Two Major Fronts

By JACK MILLER
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former Sen. Paul H. Douglas, once a liberal thorn in the side of then-Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson, now provides valuable support for the President on two major battlefronts: The cities and the Vietnam war.

Still hard-working and healthy as he approaches his 76th birthday on March 26, Douglas heads the President's National Commission on Urban Problems and is founder and co-chairman of a committee of prominent Americans backing the war effort.

Douglas has led urban commission hearings in 18 cities around the country seeking ways to revitalize the depressed cities.

The commission's report isn't due until year's end. But most of Douglas' recommendations to date have followed Johnson policies. And Douglas praised the recent presidential message on the cities to Congress.

Douglass says he formed the Vietnam citizens committee without prompting from Johnson.

The one-time economics professor, who enlisted in the Marine Corps in 1943 as a 50-year-old private, drew to the new group such distinguished retired military leaders and statesmen as former Presidents Harry S. Truman and Dwight D. Eisenhower and General of the Army Omar Bradley.

For 'Sensible Road'

Avoiding the stance of either all-out opponents of the war or those calling for military esculation, the committee in its initial statement last Oct. 25 generally endorsed the President's war policy, saying: "We favor a sensible road between capitulation and the indiscriminate use of raw power."

Using almost the same words as administration officials in interpreting this year's massive, coordinated Communist attacks on South Vietnamese cities, Douglas told a reporter:

"My own view is that the Communists failed in their objective in that they did not get any appreciable support from the people of the cities."

Explaining in an interview his support for the Vietnam war, the tall, plain-featured man with crew-cut white hair said, "I happen to believe in collective security. I believed in it against Hitler, Russia and Korea, and I think this Vietnam is part of the same family.

In the Senate, the Illinois Democrat earned the adoration of liberals for his leadership on domestic reforms.

During an 18-year Senate career that ended in 1966 when he was beaten by Republican Charles H. Percy, Douglas led the drive for much of the landmark social legislation of the last generation: Minimum wages, medicare, federal aid to education and — especially — civil rights.

CR Was Issue

Civil rights once was a battle issue between Johnson and Douglas. As one who was close to both men recall it, Douglas constantly refused to budge from his principles to make way for a Johnsonian consensus. Fuming, Johnson used to repeat over and over to friends that "politics is the art of the possible."

The associate recalls that "Johnson greatly disliked Douglas, and Douglas had no great affection for Johnson."

There is no indication today that the relationship—despite Douglas' support of key Johnson policies — has flowered into friendship.

Douglas said his current activities haven't drawn any words of gratitude from Johnson. And while Douglas occasionally attends a White House function, he said he has purposely avoided personal contact with the President to avoid implications the citizens group stand on Vietnam is influenced by Johnson.

Bobby Kennedy Has Been Bitter At Johnson for Eight Years

Indians Solicit; 'Booster Books' Available

Members of Kingston Indian Troop 12 Drum and Bugle Corps are currently selling boosters in the city. However, a spokesman for the Corps said today that it should be emphasized that no boy in the Indians is permitted to solicit for out and out donations.

There have been some reports of boys asking for donations. All donations to the Indians are through the purchase of booster books. Doners are advised to ask for a receipt. Doners will also be given a "woden nickel" in appreciation for their support of the Indians.

At present, membership between the two Indians Drum Corps is 120 boys ranging in age from eight to 21. The Troop 12 Mother's Club is busy making uniforms for the younger unit which will make their first appearance on Memorial day, and the older corps will appear in newly designed uniforms which are being manufactured by Evans Uniform Company of Philadelphia this year.

It is estimated that the cost of these uniforms alone will be approximately $6,000. Since organizing a younger corps, over $5,200 has been spent in the purchase of additional instruments, repairs, and in professional instruction. Organized in 1939, the Corps has always been self-supporting, and has helped develop and strengthen the character of over a thousand young men through the years.

JEROME KRETCHMER

A wave of political activity locally in the wake of Sen. Eugene McCarthy's showing in New Hampshire has resulted in a flurry of canvassing here by concerned Democrats and the slating of a campaign kickoff meeting in Kingston.

The focal force in the McCarthy-for-President drive locally is the Coalition for a Democratic Alternative. The Kingston Area Committee of CDA announced today that the kickoff meeting will be held Wednesday, March 27, at 8 p. m. in the garden lounge of the Governor Clinton Hotel. Assemblyman Jerome Kretchmer of the 5th Assembly District, New York City, will be the principal speaker.

A reform Democrat now active in CDA, Kretchmer has served in the Assembly since 1963. He originally won his seat in a hotly contested district leadership battle against the old line Democratic organization in New York. He has since been reelected by landslide votes of as much as 7 to 1 in the large West Side district he represents.

In his March 27 appearance for the CDA in Kingston, Kretchmer will be speaking on The Importance of an Alternative to Lyndon Johnson. He is expected to explain the purpose of CDA and to comment upon the immediate role of the organization in the 28th Congressional District.

He will also delve into the prospects for a wide open primary fights in New York within the Democratic party unequaled in this century. CDA is working toward this goal because of the race by McCarthy for the Democratic nomination for President, the enthusiasm it has generated, and the announced intention of Sen. Robert Kennedy, who has also challenged Johnson, to cooperate with McCarthy and his supporters.

April Petitions

Within the circulation of nominating petitions scheduled to start in early April, the prospect is that there will be more primary battles than in any year in recent memory. In the campaign, CDA groups in Ulster County will concentrate on electing national convention delegates pledged as anti-Johnson voters. CDA will contest for delegates here in the 28th Congressional District and in the statewide race for delegates at large.

Also on the agenda for next week's meeting at the Governor Clinton will be the organization of a steering committee for the Kingston Area CDA. The meeting in Kingston is being sponsored by the Woodstock and New Paltz CDA Committees. Letters have gone out to all enrolled Democrats in the immediate area, inviting them to the meeting to hear Kretchmer, and urging them to support the "dump Johnson" movement both politically and financially.

Recreation Plans Aired At Hurley Meet

The first of two meetings to air plans for recreation development in the Town of Hurley was held last night at the St. Joseph's Mission Church and was attended by 50 interested residents.

The plans are being put forth by the Hurley Recreation Associon, a non-profit organization created to provide two much-needed recreation areas in the township. One would be in Old Hurley and the other in West Hurley. Both would include swimming facilities in addition to ball fields, picnic areas and some campsites.

Reaction was reported to be "very favorable" after the first meeting. The next hearing will be held Wednesday 7:30 p. m. at the West Hurley Firehouse.

A complete assessment of public reaction and details of the next step will be released following the second airing.

Will Discuss Teen Woes in Talk Saturday

DAVID WILKERSON

The author of the Cross and the Switchblade, who considers marijuana "the most dangerous drug used today," will discuss teenage problems in a talk this Saturday at 7:30 p. m. in the municipal auditorium.

David Wilkerson, in a recent article, "Should Marijuana Be Legalized?" says, "Marijuana looks innocent and goes by very innocent names like "tea" and "Mary Jane" But, Mary Jane is no innocent lady. She's a sneaky doll who has started thousands of unsuspecting young people on the route to maimiming heroin."

Wilkerson, executive director of Teen Challenge in New York City, says that 90 per cent of all the drug addicts treated by Teen Challenge began by using marijuana and graduating to something harder.

An ordained Assemblies of God minister, he has had unusual success in working with drug addicts during the past decade.

He is also widely known for his books: Parents on Trail, Twelve Angels From Hell, The Little People and I'm Not Mad At God.

Area CDA Group Speaker for Gene

JEROME KRETCHMER

A wave of political activity locally in the wake of Sen. Eugene McCarthy's showing in New Hampshire has resulted in a flurry of canvassing here by concerned Democrats and the slating of a campaign kickoff meeting in Kingston.

The focal force in the McCarthy-for-President drive locally is the Coalition for a Democratic Alternative. The Kingston Area Committee of CDA announced today that the kickoff meeting will be held Wednesday, March 27, at 8 p. m. in the garden lounge of the Governor Clinton Hotel. Assemblyman Jerome Kretchmer of the 5th Assembly District, New York City, will be the principal speaker.

A reform Democrat now active in CDA, Kretchmer has served in the Assembly since 1963. He originally won his seat in a hotly contested district leadership battle against the old line Democratic organization in New York. He has since been reelected by landslide votes of as much as 7 to 1 in the large West Side district he represents.

In his March 27 appearance for the CDA in Kingston, Kretchmer will be speaking on The Importance of an Alternative to Lyndon Johnson. He is expected to explain the purpose of CDA and to comment upon the immediate role of the organization in the 28th Congressional District.

He will also delve into the prospects for a wave of preliminary fights in New York within the Democratic party unequaled in this century. CDA is working toward this goal because of the race by McCarthy for the Democratic nomination for President, the enthusiasm it has generated, and the announced intention of Sen. Robert Kennedy, who has also challenged Johnson, to cooperate with McCarthy and his supporters.

April Petitions

Within the circulation of nominating petitions scheduled to start in early April, the prospect is that there will be more primary battles than in any year in recent memory. In the campaign, CDA groups in Ulster County will concentrate on electing national convention delegates pledged as anti-Johnson voters. CDA will contest for delegates here in the 28th Congressional District and in the statewide race for delegates at large.

Also on the agenda for next week's meeting at the Governor Clinton will be the organization of a steering committee for the Kingston Area CDA. The meeting in Kingston is being sponsored by the Woodstock and New Paltz CDA Committees. Letters have gone out to all enrolled Democrats in the immediate area, inviting them to the meeting to hear Kretchmer, and urging them to support the "dump Johnson" movement both politically and financially.

Rec, Park Commission Is Sought by Mones

It was learned today that County Legislator Melvin Mones (R-Kingston) has requested the County Charter Commission to provide for a county recreation and parks commission.

In a letter to Ward W. Ingalsbe Jr. chairman of the Charter Commission, Mones urged that such a commission be included on their agenda for consideration as part of the new County Charter. He stated that Ulster County needs such facilities as would be provided for and that this would be a positive progressive action.

The legislator from Kingston informed the press that he had considered presentation of a resolution to the County Legislature establishing this commission. Upon investigation and consultation with the County Attorney, it was found that there is no provision in the present county law for creating this entity. He further stated that, "we must make every effort to take advantage of our geographic location and the natural resources available so that Ulster County can truly be a complete vacation and recreation area as well as providing parks, marinas, beaches and similar facilities for our own residents."

The County Charter Commission is presently working on a new charter. It is expected that a revised form of county government will be proposed at the conclusion of their efforts.

Recreation Plans Aired At Hurley Meet

The first of two meetings to air plans for recreation developments in the Town of Hurley was held last night at the St. Joseph's Mission Church and was attended by 50 interested residents.

The plans are being put forth by the Hurley Recreation Association, a non-profit organization created to provide two much-needed recreation areas in the township. One would be in Old Hurley and the other in West Hurley. Both would include swimming facilities in addition to ball fields, picnic areas and some campsites.

Reaction was reported to be "very favorable" after the first meeting. The next hearing will be held Wednesday 7:30 p. m. at the West Hurley Firehouse.

A complete assessment of public reaction and details of the next step will be released following the second airing.

Will Discuss Teen Woes in Talk Saturday

DAVID WILKERSON

The author of the Cross and the Switchblade, who considers marijuana "the most dangerous drug used today," will discuss teenage problems in a talk this Saturday at 7:30 p. m. in the municipal auditorium.

David Wilkerson, in a recent article, "Should Marijuana Be Legalized?" says, "Marijuana looks innocent and goes by very innocent names like "tea" and "Mary Jane" But, Mary Jane is no innocent lady. She's a sneaky doll who has started thousands of unsuspecting young people on the route to maimlining heroin."

Wilkerson, executive director of Teen Challenge in New York City, says that 90 per cent of all the drug addicts treated by Teen Challenge began by using marijuana and graduating to something harder.

An ordained Assemblies of God minister, he has had unusual success in working with drug addicts during the past decade.

He is also widely known for his books: Parents on Trail, Twelve Angels From Hell, The Little People and I'm Not Mad At God.

Arrest Repairman On Abduction Charge

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — FBI agents safely returned dark-eyed, curly-haired Dana Lynn Kelfer, 4, to her parents late Monday night, about 10 hours after she was abducted at gunpoint by a man who demanded $30,000 ransom.

The FBI said an agent found the girl bound and gagged in an isolated barn. She had apparently spent hours alone in the dark.

A 56-year-old television repairman led agents to the barn about 30 miles north of San Antonio. The man was arrested after five times driving past a point where authorities, acting on telephoned instructions, had placed the $30,000 ransom.

Bexar County authorities took custody of the man. He was jailed after giving a statement but no charges were filed immediately.

The child's father, attorney Marvin G. Kelfer, 37, told newsmen: "If I ever had a doubt about the existence of God, I don't have it now because all my prayers were answered."

A maid, Mrs. Lupe Garcia, at the Kelfer's fashionable home in suburban Castle Hills, said a man drove up in a white panel truck and posed as a repairman to gain access to the home about 1 p.m. The maid was alone in the house with Dana Lynn and another Kelfer child, 7-month-old Tracy.

Mrs. Garcia told police the man, a stocking over his face, pulled a gun. He bound her with tape, she said, got some blankets and left with Dana Lynn.

The maid worked free and alerted neighbors who called police.

A penciled ransom note left in the kitchen warned against calling authorities, demanded $30,000 in small bills and said instructions would be called at 7 p.m.

The call came at 7:40 p.m. FBI agents left the home carrying an airline flight bag. It was left beside a rural road northwest of San Antonio, about three miles from the Kelfer home.

A district attorney investigator said the repairman directed FBI agents to the barn.

The FBI said Dana Lynn was found wrapped inside a pink and a white blanket, lying in a feeding trough in the barn, her mouth taped.

Kelfer said the abduction was apparently the result of a "personal grudge" concerning a foreclosure, presumably by the savings and loan company operated by the victim's maternal grandfather, Louis Michaels.

Kelfer praised newsmen for suppressing reports of the abduction until the child was safe. "Your cooperation really saved her life," he told newsmen.

For when John F. Kennedy began his campaign in 1960 he was only slightly familiar across the nation and had to work to draw crowds.

Will Draw Crowds

Robert Kennedy starts out as an estabished celebrity and as keeper of the Kennedy legend; as an underdog challenger to an incumbent President; as one whose voice and manner summon echoes of the 1960 campaign. The 42-year-old Kennedy will have little trouble drawing crowds.

They will flock—especially the young ones—to hear the New England twang, to see the right hand piercing the air in emphasis, the fingers of the left hand nervously dipping into a jacket pocket.

So Kennedy flew back to Washington—sneezing and wrapped in a blue topcoat, a "Bobby Is Sexy" sign adorning the cabin wall, other passengers twittering and daring one another to seek autographs—assured that he has the charisma that makes people come out.

All he is missing now is 1,312 solid delegate votes in advance of August's Democratic National Convention.

Without these the charisma will count for nothing, even though he insists he wants to place "the issues confronting this country today" above the tawdry arithmetic of delegate counts.

freezes in an attempt to curb consumer-imports demand and thus to get the British balance of payments out of the red. The prime goal is to improve the condition of the recently devalued pound.

—Chairman William McChesney Martin Jr. of the Federal Reserve Board warned the dollar is not yet safe. The storm could rise anew, he told a Detroit audience, if the United States does not move promptly to restore confidence by cutting its budget and raising taxes.

While Mills and Mahon contemplated House action to put the economy drive in gear, two moves were developing in the Senate to seize the initiative by trying to attach an income-tax increase to a different bill already passed by the House.

But sponsors did not appear to have the votes. And in any case the House, traditionally jealous of its constitutional prerogative of originating all tax legislation, would not be likely to accept such a maneuver.

A Senate Proposal

One Senate proposal to be offered would append the 10 per cent surtax to a bill extending excise tax rates. The other would combine a surtax, an $8 billion spending cut and a directive to government departments to shrink their payrolls 200,000 persons by attrition.

The Senate-House Economic Committee reflected the wide range of opinions in Congress over the proposed tax increase when it published its annual report, augmented by individual statements of members.

The committee majority reported inability to agree on a recommendation for or against the surtax.

U.S. planes flew 71 missions over North Vietnam Monday. Among their targets were the Kien An airfield six miles southwest of Haiphong, a power plant 27 miles northeast of the port city, and a highway ferry 18 miles south of Hanoi.

North Vietnam proclaimed today a "Hate America" holiday, calling it a "union day of struggle against the United States." An elaborate "Hate America" campaign was scheduled, the U.S. Command reported, but a command spokesman said there were no indications the Communists were planning any special military action.

In noncombat developments, informed sources said the South Vietnamese government would increases its armed forces by 125,000 men this year to give it a total of 900,000 men under arms. The United States has agreed to equip the new troops. Earlier the Saigon government had announced plans to put 65,000 men in uniform by midyear.

In Moscow, an official of the Soviet Merchant Marine Ministry, Atoly Goldobenko, said Soviet ships would carry 20 per cent more cargo to North Vietnam this year than they did in 1967. U.S. officials have estimated total Russian aid to North Vietnam in 1967 at about $1 billion. The Soviets ship warplanes, antiaircraft guns, tanks and such nonmilitary items as building materials and food.

TODAY'S THOUGHT

By JIM GILPATRIC

Wars are caused by lots of reasons. Too numerous to mention here. But a "merchant of death" situation for war can be mentioned. For example, from mid 1949 to mid 1966, our government sold $16 billion and gave away $30 billion in arms to foreign countries. Incidentally, this included weapons to BOTH sides in the Israeli-Arab war. Before those hostilities began, former Defense Secretary McNamara explained and justified such sales to countries ready and willing to buy or be given free weapons. He said, "These sales are employing American labor and they are providing profits to American business. I think we should be encouraged and congratulated on making these arrangements."

Do you agree with him? Then write — and encourage and congratulate your President, your Congressmen and Senators. If you disagree with him, then write — discourage and condemn the thought to your President, your Congressmen and Senators. Don't you think this is a concern in which ALL of us should "get involved"? More "get involved" thoughts coming . . . watch for them . . .

chopper was shot down 110 miles southwest of the capital.

U.S. planes flew 71 missions over North Vietnam Monday. Among their targets were the Kien An airfield six miles southwest of Haiphong, a power plant 27 miles northeast of the port city, and a highway ferry 18 miles south of Hanoi.

North Vietnam proclaimed today a "Hate America" holiday, calling it a "union day of struggle against the United States." An elaborate "Hate America" campaign was scheduled, the U.S. Command reported, but a command spokesman said there were no indications the Communists were planning any special military action.

In noncombat developments, informed sources said the South Vietnamese government would increases its armed forces by 125,000 men this year to give it a total of 900,000 men under arms. The United States has agreed to equip the new troops. Earlier the Saigon government had announced plans to put 65,000 men in uniform by midyear.

In Moscow, an official of the Soviet Merchant Marine Ministry, Atoly Goldobenko, said Soviet ships would carry 20 per cent more cargo to North Vietnam this year than they did in 1967. U.S. officials have estimated total Russian aid to North Vietnam in 1967 at about $1 billion. The Soviets ship warplanes, antiaircraft guns, tanks and such nonmilitary items as building materials and food.

TODAY'S THOUGHT

By JIM GILPATRIC

Wars are caused by lots of reasons. Too numerous to mention here. But a "merchant of death" situation for war can be mentioned. For example, from mid 1949 to mid 1966, our government sold $16 billion and gave away $30 billion in arms to foreign countries. Incidentally, this included weapons to BOTH sides in the Israeli-Arab war. Before those hostilities began, former Defense Secretary McNamara explained and justified such sales to countries ready and willing to buy or be given free weapons. He said, "These sales are employing American labor and they are providing profits to American business. I think we should be encouraged and congratulated on making these arrangements."

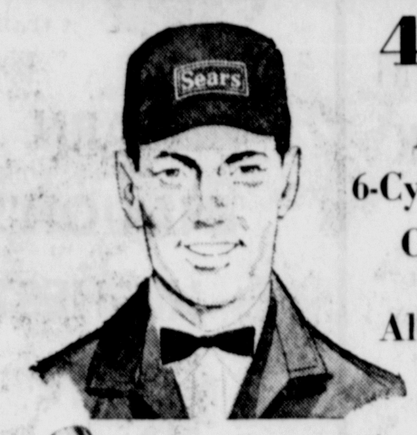

Do you agree with him? Then write — and encourage and congratulate your President, your Congressmen and Senators. If you disagree with him, then write — discourage and condemn the thought to your President, your Congressmen and Senators. Don't you think this is a concern in which ALL of us should "get involved"? More "get involved" thoughts coming . . . watch for them . . .

Chamber Plans Promotions, Elections, Narcotics Talk

The Woodstock Township Chamber of Commerce has made six nominations for the election of three board members, discussed summer promotion work, finances, and planned the March 21 meeting.

Summer promotions include a Chamber informational booklet and the operation of the Information Center. An outdoor map is also being designed. The map will show places of interest in the Woodstock Township and give the business locations of chamber members. Gustof Pawelka is in charge.

All local organizations, church groups, the P-TA, teenagers and interested persons are invited to the Thursday, March 21 open meeting at Deanie's, 8 p.m. The topic is to be narcotics and the guest speaker will be Thomas Mayone, special investigator from the district attorney's office. He will illustrate his talk with a film entitled, Pit of Dispair, a documentary that has not been shown in Woodstock before. A question and answer period will follow and a display case showing the various kinds of narcotics and the tools used in administering them will be on view.

The annual election of three board members will be held at the end of the meeting. Those nominated on the double slate are, Chris Morris, Robert Hewes, Gustof Pawelka, Malcomb Rose, and re-nominated were Louis Feinbergh and Sara Springer. Other board members are, Ned Houst, president; Gordon Anderson, treasurer; Harry Alpern, Oscar Vanden Dooren, William Militello, Kiki Minervini and Richard Langham. Langham declined re-nomination due to other commitments demanding his time. Hal Martin serves as acting secretary, publicity chairman and information center director.

Dinner Honors Legion Aux. 36th Anniversary

Members of American Legion Auxiliary Unit 1026 held a 36th anniversary dinner meeting recently at Deanie's Restaurant.

Mrs. Aaron Hasbrouck, president, welcomed old and new members.

Committee chairmen reported on their particular activities and among these were contributions to the Heart Fund, American Field Service at Onteora, gifts and canteen books to hospitalized veterans, clothing to children of veterans and to a Children's Home, Christmas cards given to a mental institution for use in their therapy work.

It was also reported that 2,262 coupons had been sent in this month. The coupons benefit the American Legion Women's Infirmary at Tupper Lake, and the auxiliary asks local housewives to save coupons for the unit. The coupons are found on many food packages. Trading stamps of any kind are also welcome. They may be given to any auxiliary member or mailed to Mrs. Aaron Hasbrouck, Woodstock.

In September the unit will sponsor Ulster-Hurley Brownie Troop 77 to whom they recently presented an American flag.

The unit will assist its post in a bingo party at the Albany VA Hospital later this spring. It was announced that the next county meeting will be held in the Kingston Legion building on March 25 and the spring conference of the Third District will be at the Gov. Clinton Hotel on May 18.

This month marks the 49th anniversary of the American Legion, and it also marks the 38th anniversary of Woodstock Post 1026 and the 36th anniversary of Woodstock Legion Auxiliary. Because of these events the president read a paper giving a brief history of the birth of the American Legion in Paris, France in 1919 and of the formation of the American Legion Auxiliary the following year, on down to the local post in 1930 and the auxiliary in 1932.

How do you measure up against experienced investors?

"I'm a stock broker. Take this New York Stock Exchange test and compare your answers with mine."

QUIZ A: In an Exchange survey, the following were cited as reasons for buying common stocks, but not in this order: good when living costs rise; long-term gain; quick profit; dividends. How do you think they were ranked?

ANSWER: People who owned common stock put long-term gain first, then dividends, good when living costs rise, quick profit. Among non-shareowners, the order was reversed with "quick profit" first. Daydreaming about quick profits can lead to foolhardy risks and disappointments. Many experienced investors have seen that, over the years, the value of many listed common stocks and many dividends have increased—an effective hedge against inflation.

QUIZ B: In order to invest, you should have an annual income of at least ☐ $10,000; ☐ $20,000; ☐ $30,000.

ANSWER: None of the answers is correct. The amount you need is influenced by your standard of living, provision for emergencies and other commitments. About half of the estimated 24 million U.S. investors have incomes of less than $10,000.

QUIZ C: Match each security with its most prominent characteristic:

1. high-grade bonds — ☐ long-term growth
2. listed common stocks — ☐ fixed dividends
3. preferred stocks — ☐ relative safety

ANSWER: High-grade bonds are often associated with stable returns and relative safety over the long term; listed common stocks with long-term growth; preferred stocks usually with fixed dividends. There is no investment, however, completely free of risk. What you buy, and when, depends on your goal and market conditions.

QUIZ D: The New York Stock Exchange lists any U.S. company. True or false?

ANSWER: False. Listed companies are an elite group—only some 1,200—or less than 1%—of all American corporations. Ask a member firm to explain the advantages of listed stocks and then decide whether they fit into your picture.

QUIZ E: The advantage of using member firm brokers is that: ☐ they have met Exchange requirements for knowledge of the securities business; ☐ they are full-time brokers; ☐ member firms are expected to meet Exchange standards of ethics, financial condition and investment experience.

ANSWER: All the answers are correct. But no broker is infallible. Ask him for information and his opinion about stocks you are interested in. One of his most important services is to help you arrive at an informed judgment.

Portfolo Planned For Good Income

Q — My wife and I are social workers, and our combined income is sufficient for ordinary expenses. We have a daughter in college and two sons approaching it. Recently the death of a close relative has resulted in a substantial legacy amounting to about $25,000. We have insurance and $1,500 in savings bank. How can we invest this $25,000 to give us the best possible income over the next few years to help pay for college expenses?—S.T.

A — Please accept my sympathy in your bereavement and my congratulations on a fine legacy. Before investing the entire $25,000 I would, in your position, build my bank account to at least $4,000 to allow good protection against any possible emergencies involving you or members of your family. Savings accounts don't fluctuate, as do all stocks to a greater or lesser extent.

For income I suggest General Motors, yielding 5 per cent; Financial, also yielding 5 per cent; Allied Chemical, 5.2 per cent; Dequesne Light, 5.4 per cent; Stewart Warner, 5.4 per cent; Puerto Rican Cement, 5.5 per cent. Your average return from these six issues would amount to about 5.2 per cent.

Q — We have $5,000 invested in Series E savings bonds. As a hedge against inflation we have been advised to redeem these bonds and invest in good growth stocks. What do you advise?—K.W.

A — It would seem from your letter that your $5,000 in E bonds represents your total capital. If so, I'd think twice about redeeming them all and investing the proceeds in stocks, an area in which I assume you have had very little experience.

Series E bonds are not only the safest of obligations, but they are really as good as cash, since they are redeemable without advance notice after two months of holding. If you wish some protection against inflation I would redeem $1,000 in E bonds and put the proceeds into Pacific Gas & Electric, a good-growth West Coast utility with a well-secured 4 per cent yield.

(Mr. Spear cannot answer all mail personally, but will answer all questions possible in his column.)

Debate Begins On Amendment By Case-Clark

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senators and top Senate aides would have to put their personal financial status on public view under a proposed amendment to a recommended new code of ethics.

The amendment by Sens. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., and Clifford P. Case, R-N.J., offered Monday as the Senate opened debate on its ethics committee's proposed financial disclosure rules, was similar to a measure defeated last September by a 46 to 42 count.

A principal argument used then was that the Senate should wait until the ethics panel made its recommendations.

The Case-Clark amendment would require senators and ranking staffers to publicly list each year their incomes along with financial assets and liabilities.

The bipartisan ethics committee proposal calls for the filing each year of part-public, part-private financial statements by senators and aides paid $15,000 a year or more.

One report—the public one—would list contributions received during the preceding year and honorariums of more than $300 for speeches, articles, television appearances and the like.

The second statement, to be filed in a sealed envelope, would list income tax returns, legal fees, property holdings, liabilities, gifts and corporate and professional fees.

These could be opened only if a majority of the ethics committee voted it was necessary for an investigation of any misconduct charges.

Chairman John Stennis, D-Miss., of the ethics panel contended the proposed two-statement system "properly protects and respects each senator and Senate employe" and still protects the public interest.

Case told a reporter he felt the amendment he and Clark have offered stands a fair chance of passage—but acknowledged it now is up against "the prestige of the committee."

Charge Ellenville Youth With Threatening Principal

A 17-year-old youth was taken into custody Monday afternoon on a charge of harassment after he reportedly walked into the office of the principal at Ellenville High School with a rifle and allegedly threatened the school executive.

Police said Gary Richard Cossar of Ellenville, was arraigned before Village Police Justice Ronald Elias, who paroled the youth in the custody of his parents and adjourned the case until April 16 for all purposes.

Police Chief Abe Rand and Sergeant George Sheeley investigated a complaint made by Morris Kaufman, principal of the high school, who authorities said had been allegedly threatened by Cossar.

Police said the rifle was not loaded at the time of the incident. Kaufman said yesterday that he knew nothing about the youth and the rifle incident although the case was under investigation by local authorities at the time.

Jail Sentence

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP) — Martin G. Sostere, 45, has been sentenced to serve from 31 to 41 years in prison for possession and sale of narcotics and second-degree assault on a policeman.

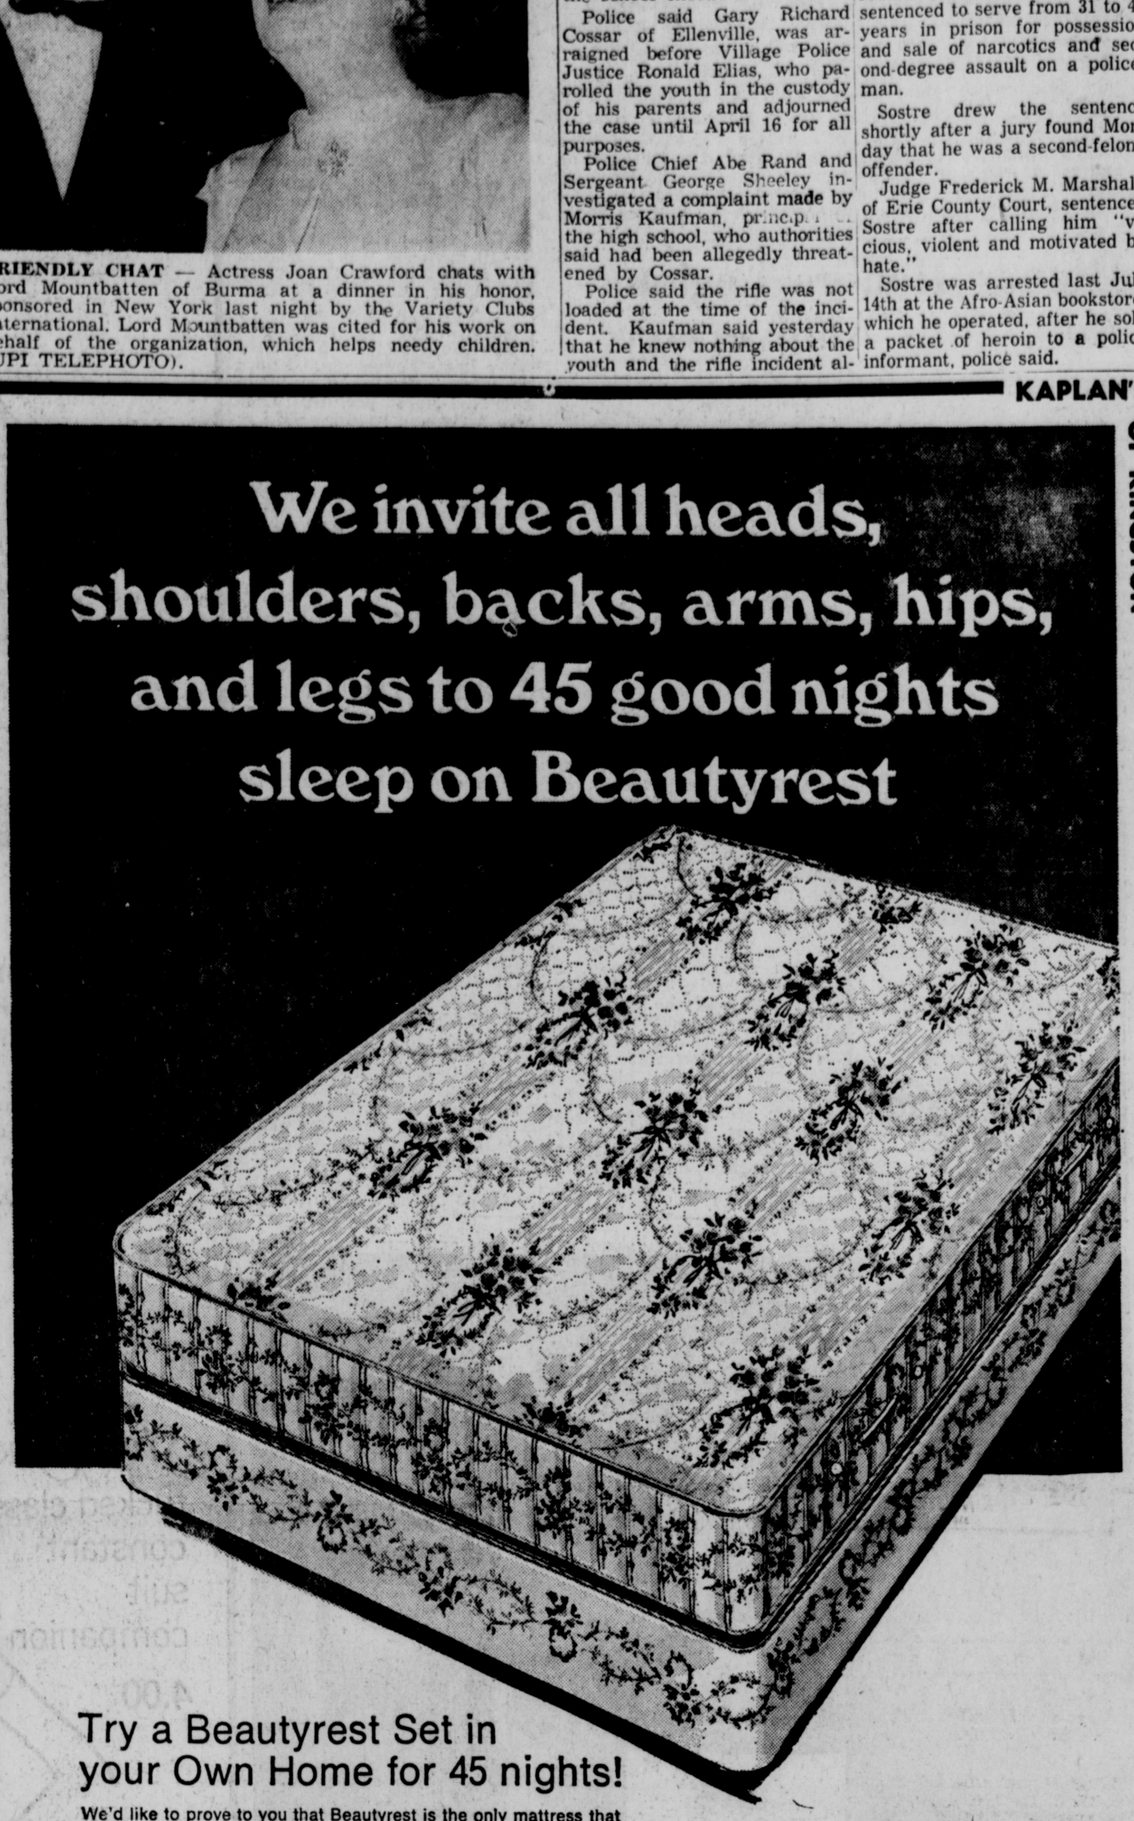

Sostre drew the sentence shortly after a jury found Monday that he was a second-felony offender.

Judge Frederick M. Marshall, of Erie County Court, sentenced Sostre after calling him "vicious, violent and motivated by hate."

Sostre was arrested last July 14th at the Afro-Asian bookstore, which he operated, after he sold a packet of heroin to a police informant, police said.

How do you measure up against experienced investors?

"I'm a stock broker. Take this New York Stock Exchange test and compare your answers with mine."

QUIZ A: In an Exchange survey, the following were cited as reasons for buying common stocks, but not in this order: good when living costs rise; long-term gain; quick profit; dividends. How do you think they were ranked?

ANSWER: People who owned common stock put long-term gain first, then dividends, good when living costs rise, quick profit. Among non-shareowners, the order was reversed with "quick profit" first. Daydreaming about quick profits can lead to foolhardy risks and disappointments. Many experienced investors have seen that, over the years, the value of many listed common stocks and many dividends have increased—an effective hedge against inflation.

QUIZ B: In order to invest, you should have an annual income of at least ☐ $10,000; ☐ $20,000; ☐ $30,000.

ANSWER: None of the answers is correct. The amount you need is influenced by your standard of living, provision for emergencies and other commitments. About half of the estimated 24 million U.S. investors have incomes of less than $10,000.

QUIZ C: Match each security with its most prominent characteristic:

1. high-grade bonds ☐ long-term growth
2. listed common stocks ☐ fixed dividends
3. preferred stocks ☐ relative safety

ANSWER: High-grade bonds are often associated with stable returns and relative safety over the long term; listed common stocks with long-term growth; preferred stocks usually with fixed dividends. There is no investment, however, completely free of risk. What you buy, and when, depends on your goal and market conditions.

QUIZ D: The New York Stock Exchange lists any U.S. company. True or false?

ANSWER: False. Listed companies are an elite group—only some 1,200—or less than 1%—of all American corporations. Ask a member firm to explain the advantages of listed stocks and then decide whether they fit into your picture.

QUIZ E: The advantage of using member firm brokers is that: ☐ they have met Exchange requirements for knowledge of the securities business; ☐ they are full-time brokers; ☐ member firms are expected to meet Exchange standards of ethics, financial condition and investment experience.

ANSWER: All the answers are correct. But no broker is infallible. Ask him for information and his opinion about stocks you are interested in. One of his most important services is to help you arrive at an informed judgment.

Senate Receives Bill On Minimum School Age

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — The Senate must now decide whether to act on a bill passed by the Assembly Monday that would require the state's children to enter first grade at age six.

Present law requires children to begin first grade by age seven, but their parents have the option of enrolling them at age six. Most do so.

The measure would take effect at the beginning of the school year in September, if approved by the Senate and Gov. Rockefeller.

Two bills sponsored by Atty. Gen. Louis J. Lefkowitz aimed at protecting the consumer also gained approval.

Persons who receive unsolicited merchandise would have the right to keep such items without paying for them under a measure passed by the Senate. It was sent along to the Assembly.

The Assembly, meanwhile, passed and sent to the Senate a bill that would give consumers the right to return merchandise bought from door to door salesmen within three days of purchase. The bill is designed to protect those who buy from high - pressure salesmen and then discover they can't afford the item or don't want it. California, Georgia and Connecticut have similar laws.

In other action:

— The Assembly passed a measure that would add radio and television news workers to those exempted from jury duty. Current law includes only newsmen who work for newspapers.

— Imitation milk products would be brought under the jurisdiction of the Commissioner of Agriculture and Markets in a bill that gained final legislative passage in the Assembly. The measure goes to Gov. Rockefeller.

—The Senate gave final legislative approval to a measure making smallpox and measles immunizations mandatory for all state children before entering school. Present state law requires only polio immunizations for pre - school children on a statewide basis and smallpox vacinations for children in cities with populations of 50,000 or more.

Senate Receives Bill On Minimum School Age

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — The Senate must now decide whether to act on a bill passed by the Assembly Monday that would require the state's children to enter first grade at age six.

Present law requires children to begin first grade by age seven, but their parents have the option of enrolling them at age six. Most do so.

The measure would take effect at the beginning of the school year in September, if approved by the Senate and Gov. Rockefeller.

Two bills sponsored by Atty. Gen. Louis J. Lefkowitz aimed at protecting the consumer also gained approval.

Persons who receive unsolicited merchandise would have the right to keep such items without paying for them under a measure passed by the Senate. It was sent along to the Assembly.

The Assembly, meanwhile, passed and sent to the Senate a bill that would give consumers the right to return merchandise bought from door to door salesmen within three days of purchase. The bill is designed to protect those who buy from high - pressure salesmen and then discover they can't afford the item or don't want it. California, Georgia and Connecticut have similar laws.

In other action:

— The Assembly passed a measure that would add radio and television news workers to those exempted from jury duty. Current law includes only newsmen who work for newspapers.

— Imitation milk products would be brought under the jurisdiction of the Commissioner of Agriculture and Markets in a bill that gained final legislative passage in the Assembly. The measure goes to Gov. Rockefeller.

—The Senate gave final legislative approval to a measure making smallpox and measles immunizations mandatory for all state children before entering school. Present state law requires only polio immunizations for pre - school children on a statewide basis and smallpox vacinations for children in cities with populations of 50,000 or more.

(OR $2 FOR YOUR ENTIRE FAMILY.) THEN YOU MAY CONTINUE AT WORLD MUTUAL'S REGULAR LOW RATES

Money back in full if not 100% satisfied. No age limit— Apply NOW—This Introductory Offer Lasts Only 3 More Days

ONE OUT OF TWO FAMILIES will have someone in the hospital this year! It could be you—or some beloved member of your family, tomorrow . . . next week . . . next month. Sad to say very few families have anywhere near enough coverage to meet today's soaring hospital costs. These costs have TRIPLED in just a few short years. They are expected to DOUBLE AGAIN in the few years ahead.

Stop for a moment. Think how much a long stay in the hospital will cost you or a loved one. How would you ever pay for costly but necessary X-rays, doctor bills, drugs and medicines? What would you do if your pay check stops, but living expenses go right on—rent, phone, food, all the day-to-day expenses that never stop? What is the average bread winner to do?

Now you can receive $100.00 a week tax-free cash, from the very first day you enter the hospital for as long as you are confined there—even for 100 full weeks, if necessary!

This new plan relieves you of worry about the terrible financial threat of accident or illness. But you must apply during this limited enrollment period BEFORE the date shown in the coupon below.

THIS LIMITED ENROLLMENT OFFER ENDS SOON
Only $1 for First Month — Money-Back Guarantee

To encourage you to see how much this Plan can mean to you and your family, we make this unusual, money-saving offer:

You can now have your first month's protection for only one dollar! But, you must act immediately, because this unusual opportunity is offered for a limited time. Your request for this wonderful Income Protection plan must be mailed on the convenient form below NOT LATER THAN MIDNIGHT, of the date in the Enrollment Form.

This midnight expiration hour cannot be extended. If your enrollment form is mailed later, it cannot be accepted.

These are the ONLY Exclusions!

The new World Mutual Plan covers every conceivable kind of sickness and accident except, of course hospitalization caused by the use of alcoholic beverages or narcotics, mental or nervous disorders; act of war; pregnancy, childbirth or miscarriage; expenses resulting from any sickness or injury you had before the policy (during the first 3 years only); or where care is in a government hospital. Everything else IS covered.

PAYS YOU CASH . . . $100.00-A-WEEK tax free cash starting your very first day in the hospital. No waiting period!

PAYS YOU CASH . . . to a maximum of $10,000.00 any time you go to the hospital and stay for as long as 100 weeks.

PAYS YOU CASH . . . Money mailed directly to you—not to the doctor or hospital

PAYS YOU CASH . . . you get $100.00-A-Week in addition to whatever you receive from Medicare, Workmen's Compensation or any other insurance.

IF YOU ARE OVER 65 WORLD MUTUAL WILL PAY YOU IN ADDITION TO MEDICARE

Why are smart folks over 65 now hastening to protect themselves with The World Mutual Plan in addition to what "Medicare" will do for them?

Even though Medicare is a great boon to folks over 65, it will not, of course, pay all the bills that quickly pile up as a result of illness or accident.

Regardless of your age, you will still need additional health protection.

We have designed this plan as the important addition to what you receive from Medicare—or any other health insurance you may have.

Remember, all checks will be sent directly to you, to give you that "extra" help just when you need it most—to help pay any bills you choose. Best of all, your World Mutual protection will pay even for 100 weeks, if necessary!

How can $1 buy so much?

You can buy ordinary insurance at any time and pay the regular rates, if you wish. But World Mutual can now provide you with $100.00 a week tax-free Income Protection for just $1 the first month ONLY BECAUSE WE ENROLL A NUMBER OF PEOPLE AT ONE TIME—direct by mail! This highly efficient "mass enrollment" method cuts costs to the bone. We are able to issue thousands of policies in a few short weeks—rather than spread the procedure over many long months—or even a year. Our overhead and processing expenses are reduced drastically—and the savings are passed on to you!

After your first month's protection, you may continue at World Mutual's regular low monthly rates—and the rate you pay now will never be increased because you grow older!

What Would Happen To Your Family?

The chances are one in seven that you will spend some time in the hospital this year. A fall on the stairs, in the bathtub, or on the sidewalk—a sudden illness or operation—could lay you up for weeks, months, perhaps even years.

Right now, you probably have some hospital coverage. You may think you're "safe" from all the financial burdens of sickness and accident. But hospital coverage usually takes care of only part of your expenses.

Can you afford the soaring costs of doctor, surgical, and nursing bills? Can you afford missing your weekly paycheck during the time you're laid up in the hospital? Even though you probably have some protection now—will it be enough? Sickness, accidents, hospitalization, cost many people their savings, their cars, even their homes. Don't take chances with your financial security. Now for only pennies a day, YOU can enjoy the added protection, the peace of mind, the freedom from worry that this new World Mutual $100.00-A-Week Extra Income Health and Accident Plan WNL-1-667 offers.

The Added Protection You NEED!

All benefits of this World Mutual $100.00-A-Week Income Protection Plan are paid directly to you, in tax-free cash, in addition to whatever you may receive from your other insurance! Spend the money as you see fit—for hospital or doctors' bills, mortgage payments—or any necessary but costly extras not fully covered by usual hospital policies.

Everything costs more these days (need we tell you?) and hospital care is certainly no exception! While 7 out of 8 Americans have some hospital insurance, most have found it does not cover all the bills that pile up when sickness or accident strikes. That's why World Mutual developed low-cost Income Protection that helps you pay either hospital costs or anything else you need or want!

You get your $100.00 per week ($14.28 per day)—TAX FREE—from your first day in the hospital, and as long as you are confined there, even for 100 weeks, if necessary.

For Older Folks — Greater Protection Than You Ever Would Have Thought Possible!

Right now, would advancing age prevent you from getting hospital insurance, or income protection with another company? Or if you could get a policy elsewhere, would you have to pay a big premium for it? Or perhaps you no longer have a regular income, and are living on Social Security. What would happen to you then if you had to suddenly go to a hospital?

Your "life saver" could be this wonderful World Mutual Income Protection Plan—because World Mutual welcomes folks of all ages into its Plan. You can even be OVER 100 and still be eligible!

Can You Afford to Miss This Chance?

Now, at less cost than you may ever have thought would be possible, you can set up a "gold mine" of protection from desperate financial straits if the need arises. Thanks to this unique new Plan, you can assure the solid, substantial protection you need—and not only save money, but assure yourself of other benefits, too, during all the years to come.

Our Famous MONEY-BACK GUARANTEE

We are so sure that we offer the best protection at the lowest cost, that we make our famous MONEY-BACK guarantee.

When you send for your policy, and it arrives in your hands, we want you to look it over—as carefully and as often as you wish. See how thoroughly it protects you. See how exactly it meets the needs that you want covered. See how here, at last, is the policy that makes it possible for you to get the sickness and accident protection you need, in greater measure than ever before!

If you are not 100% satisfied that your policy is exactly what we have promised it to be, and exactly what YOU want it to be—send the policy back to us within 30 days and we will REFUND YOUR MONEY IN FULL, AT ONCE. But meanwhile you will be protected. And, if you decide to continue this wonderful protection, you may do so at the low rate shown below—a rate which will never be raised because you grow older!

World Mutual Plans Are Nationally Known

This money-saving World Mutual $100.00-A-Week Income Protection Plan truly offers outstanding value. Here's why: You can buy ordinary insurance from most companies at regular rates all year long. They are happy to issue one policy at a time. But World Mutual issues many new policies at one time during a limited enrollment period.

This "mass enrollment" method keeps our underwriting, processing and all other overhead expenses down to a bare minimum—and these savings are passed on to you!

THIS LIMITED ENROLLMENT OFFER ENDS SOON
Only $1 for First Month —
Unconditional Money Back Guarantee

To introduce you to this new Plan, we make you this unusual offer: Act during this enrollment period and get your first month's protection for only one dollar (only $2 for your entire family)!

Simply fill out the enrollment form here and mail it with just $1 (or $2 for the entire family), before midnight, of the date in the coupon. A full month's protection will go into effect on the same day we accept your enrollment form. Your policy will be sent to you right away BY MAIL.

When you get your policy, examine all its benefits and features. Have it checked, if you wish, by your lawyer, doctor, clergyman, or other trusted adviser. If you are not 100% satisfied, return the policy within 30 days and your money will be refunded. But if you decide to continue this worthwhile protection, you may do so at the low rates as follows for each member:

World Mutual Monthly Renewal Rates

40-54	only $4.95
55-64	only $5.95
65-74	only $6.95
75 and over	only $9.25

NOTE: The regular Monthly Premium shown here (for your age at time of enrollment) is the same low premium you will continue to pay; it will not automatically increase as you pass from one age bracket to the next! Once you have enrolled in this World Mutual plan, your rate can never be changed because of how much or how often you collect from us — or because of advanced age — but only if there is a general rate adjustment, up or down, on all policies of this type in your entire state!

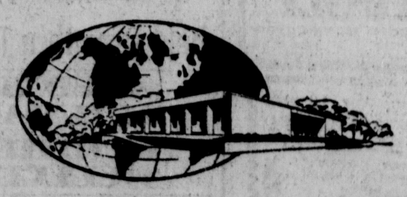

Act NOW — "Later" May Be TOO Late!

TIME IS PRECIOUS! Act quickly. Get your enrollment form into the mail today—because once you suffer an accident or sickness, it's TOO LATE to buy protection at any cost. That's why we urge you to act today—before anything unexpected happens.

THESE 20 QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Tell you how World Mutual's $100.00-A-Week Income Protection Plan gives you the protection you need — at amazingly low cost!

1. How much will this policy pay me when I go to the hospital?
   $100.00 per week.
2. When will my hospitalization benefits start?
   The day you enter the hospital.
3. Will I be paid if I am in the hospital for less than a full week?
   Yes. This new plan pays whether you are in the hospital for only a day, or a week, a month, or a year!
4. Does this policy have any "waiting periods" before I can use it?
   No. It will go into force on the same day we accept your completed enrollment form and $1 premium (or $2.)
5. How long will I continue to receive hospitalization benefits?
   For every day you are in the hospital to a maximum of 100 weeks, as a result of any one accident or illness.
6. Suppose I am paid benefits for any sickness or accident. What happens if I am again hospitalized for the same condition?

7. How may I use these benefit payments?
   You may use them in any way you wish—for hospital and doctor bills, rent, food, household expenses, or anything else. This is entirely up to you!
8. Can I collect from World Mutual even if I carry other insurance?
   Of course. This plan will pay you in addition to whatever you may receive from any other policies, including Medicare, for folks over 65.
9. Why do I need this World Mutual Plan in addition to my other hospital and health insurance?
   While hospital costs have tripled in recent years, very few people have tripled their insurance. The chances are one in seven that you will require hospital care this year—and you will need money to take care of all your other expenses, as well as your hospital bills. Your World Mutual checks are rushed to you by air mail to use as you see fit!
10. May I apply if I am over 65?
    Yes, you may. Folks any age are welcome to apply—there is no age limit!
11. Will my protection be cancelled because I have too many claims?
    No. World Mutual guarantees never to cancel your protection because you have too many claims or because of advanced age. We also guarantee never to refuse to renew your policy unless the premium is not paid before the end of the grace period, or unless renewal is declined on all policies of this type in your entire state. (Of course, if deception is used in making application, the policy may be ineffective.)
12. Will benefits be reduced because of advanced age?
    No. Regardless of how old you become or how many claims you have, your benefits remain the same.
13. Will my rates be raised as I grow older or if I have too many claims?
    No matter how many claims you have, or regardless of how long you keep your policy, your rate will remain the same as it was for your age when you applied. World Mutual guarantees never to adjust this rate unless the rates are adjusted on all policies of this type in your entire state!
14. What is not covered by this policy?
    The only conditions not covered are those caused by: the use of alcoholic beverages or narcotics; mental or nervous disorders; pregnancy, childbirth or miscarriage; expenses resulting from any sickness or injury you had before the policy Effective Date (during the first 3 years only); act of war; or where care is in a Government hospital. Everything else is covered!
15. What are the requirements for membership in this World Mutual Plan?
    You must not have been refused any health, hospital or life insurance; and, to qualify during this enrollment period, you must apply before midnight of the date in the coupon.
16. Why is this offer good for a limited time only?
    Because by enrolling a large number of people at the same time, underwriting, processing and policy issuance costs can be kept at a minimum—and we can pass these savings on to you.
17. Besides the savings, are there other advantages to joining World Mutual during this enrollment period?
    Yes. A very important one is that you do not need to complete a regular application—just the brief form in the lower left hand corner of this page. Also, during this enrollment period there are no other requirements for eligibility—and no "waivers" or restrictive endorsements can be put on your policy!
18. Can other members of my family take advantage of this special offer?
    Yes, as long as they can meet the few requirements listed under Question 15.
19. How does the money-back guarantee work?
    Examine your policy carefully in the privacy of your own home. If for any reason you are not completely satisfied, return it within 30 days and we will promptly refund your money. Meanwhile you will be fully protected while making your decision!
20. How do I join?
    Fill out the brief enrollment form (be sure to sign your name) and mail it, with just $1 for the first month's protection. ($2 covers your entire family.) Mail to: World Mutual, 11401 Roosevelt Blvd., Philadelphia, Pa. 19154.

(OR $2 FOR YOUR ENTIRE FAMILY.) THEN YOU MAY CONTINUE AT WORLD MUTUAL'S REGULAR LOW RATES

Money back in full if not 100% satisfied. No age limit— Apply NOW—This Introductory Offer Lasts Only 3 More Days

ONE OUT OF TWO FAMILIES will have someone in the hospital this year! It could be you—or some beloved member of your family, tomorrow . . . next week . . . next month. Sad to say very few families have anywhere near enough coverage to meet today's soaring hospital costs. These costs have TRIPLED in just a few short years. They are expected to DOUBLE AGAIN in the few years ahead.

Stop for a moment. Think how much a long stay in the hospital will cost you or a loved one. How would you ever pay for costly but necessary X-rays, doctor bills, drugs and medicines? What would you do if your pay check stops, but living expenses go right on—rent, phone, food, all the day-to-day expenses that never stop? What is the average bread winner to do?

Now you can receive $100.00 a week tax-free cash, from the very first day you enter the hospital for as long as you are confined there—even for 100 full weeks, if necessary!

This new plan relieves you of worry about the terrible financial threat of accident or illness. But you must apply during this limited enrollment period BEFORE the date shown in the coupon below.

THIS LIMITED ENROLLMENT OFFER ENDS SOON
Only $1 for First Month — Money-Back Guarantee

To encourage you to see how much this Plan can mean to you and your family, we make this unusual, money-saving offer:

You can now have your first month's protection for only one dollar! But, you must act immediately, because this unusual opportunity is offered for a limited time. Your request for this wonderful Income Protection plan must be mailed on the convenient form below NOT LATER THAN MIDNIGHT, of the date in the Enrollment Form.

This midnight expiration hour cannot be extended. If your enrollment form is mailed later, it cannot be accepted.

These are the ONLY Exclusions!

The new World Mutual Plan covers every conceivable kind of sickness and accident except, of course hospitalization caused by the use of alcoholic beverages or narcotics, mental or nervous disorders; act of war; pregnancy, childbirth or miscarriage; expenses resulting from any sickness or injury you had before the policy (during the first 3 years only); or where care is in a government hospital. Everything else IS covered.

PAYS YOU CASH . . . $100.00-A-WEEK tax free cash starting your very first day in the hospital. No waiting period!

PAYS YOU CASH . . . to a maximum of $10,000.00 any time you go to the hospital and stay for as long as 100 weeks.

PAYS YOU CASH . . . Money mailed directly to you—not to the doctor or hospital

PAYS YOU CASH . . . you get $100.00-A-Week in addition to whatever you receive from Medicare, Workmen's Compensation or any other insurance.

IF YOU ARE OVER 65 WORLD MUTUAL WILL PAY YOU IN ADDITION TO MEDICARE

Why are smart folks over 65 now hastening to protect themselves with The World Mutual Plan in addition to what "Medicare" will do for them?

Even though Medicare is a great boon to folks over 65, it will not, of course, pay all the bills that quickly pile up as a result of illness or accident.

Regardless of your age, you will still need additional health protection.

We have designed this plan as the important addition to what you receive from Medicare – or any other health insurance you may have.

Remember, all checks will be sent directly to you, to give you that "extra" help just when you need it most – to help pay any bills you choose. Best of all, your World Mutual protection will pay even for 100 weeks, if necessary!

How can $1 buy so much?

You can buy ordinary insurance at any time and pay the regular rates, if you wish. But World Mutual can now provide you with $100.00 a week tax-free Income Protection for just $1 the first month ONLY BECAUSE WE ENROLL A NUMBER OF PEOPLE AT ONE TIME—direct by mail! This highly efficient "mass enrollment" method cuts costs to the bone. We are able to issue thousands of policies in a few short weeks—rather than spread the procedure over many long months—or even a year. Our overhead and processing expenses are reduced drastically – and the savings are passed on to you!

After your first month's protection, you may continue at World Mutual's regular low monthly rates – and the rate you pay now will never be increased because you grow older!

What Would Happen To Your Family?

The chances are one in seven that you will spend some time in the hospital this year. A fall on the stairs, in the bathtub, or on the sidewalk – a sudden illness or operation – could lay you up for weeks, months, perhaps even years.

Right now, you probably have some hospital coverage. You may think you're "safe" from all the financial burdens of sickness and accident. But hospital coverage usually takes care of only part of your expenses.

Can you afford the soaring costs of doctor, surgical, and nursing bills? Can you afford missing your weekly paycheck during the time you're laid up in the hospital? Even though you probably have some protection now – will it be enough? Sickness, accidents, hospitalization, cost many people their savings, their cars, even their homes. Don't take chances with your financial security. Now for only pennies a day, YOU can enjoy the added protection, the peace of mind, the freedom from worry that this new World Mutual $100.00-A-Week Extra Income Health and Accident Plan WNL-1-667 offers.

The Added Protection You NEED!

All benefits of this World Mutual $100.00-A-Week Income Protection Plan are paid directly to you, in tax-free cash, in addition to whatever you may receive from your other insurance! Spend the money as you see fit – for hospital or doctors' bills, mortgage payments – or any necessary but costly extras not fully covered by usual hospital policies.

Everything costs more these days (need we tell you?) and hospital care is certainly no exception! While 7 out of 8 Americans have some hospital insurance, most have found it does not cover all the bills that pile up when sickness or accident strikes. That's why World Mutual developed low-cost Income Protection that helps you pay either hospital costs or anything else you need or want!

You get your $100.00 per week ($14.28 per day)–TAX FREE – from your first day in the hospital, and as long as you are confined there, even for 100 weeks, if necessary.

For Older Folks — Greater Protection Than You Ever Would Have Thought Possible!

Right now, would advancing age prevent you from getting hospital insurance, or income protection with another company? Or if you could get a policy elsewhere, would you have to pay a big premium for it? Or perhaps you no longer have a regular income, and are living on Social Security. What would happen to you then if you had to suddenly go to a hospital?

Your "life saver" could be this wonderful World Mutual Income Protection Plan—because World Mutual welcomes folks of all ages into its Plan. You can even be OVER 100 and still be eligible!

Can You Afford to Miss This Chance?

Now, at less cost than you may ever have thought would be possible, you can set up a "gold mine" of protection from desperate financial straits if the need arises. Thanks to this unique new Plan, you can assure the solid, substantial protection you need—and not only save money, but assure yourself of other benefits, too, during all the years to come.

Our Famous MONEY-BACK GUARANTEE

We are so sure that we offer the best protection at the lowest cost, that we make our famous MONEY-BACK guarantee.

When you send for your policy, and it arrives in your hands, we want you to look it over – as carefully and as often as you wish. See how thoroughly it protects you. See how exactly it meets the needs that you want covered. See how here, at last, is the policy that makes it possible for you to get the sickness and accident protection you need, in greater measure than ever before!

If you are not 100% satisfied that your policy is exactly what we have promised it to be, and exactly what YOU want it to be—send the policy back to us within 30 days and we will REFUND YOUR MONEY IN FULL, AT ONCE. But meanwhile you will be protected. And, if you decide to continue this wonderful protection, you may do so at the low rate shown below – a rate which will never be raised because you grow older!

World Mutual Plans Are Nationally Known

This money-saving World Mutual $100.00-A-Week Income Protection Plan truly offers outstanding value. Here's why: You can buy ordinary insurance from most companies at regular rates all year long. They are happy to issue one policy at a time. But World Mutual issues many new policies at one time during a limited enrollment period.

This "mass enrollment" method keeps our underwriting, processing and all other overhead expenses down to a bare minimum – and these savings are passed on to you!

THIS LIMITED ENROLLMENT OFFER ENDS SOON
Only $1 for First Month — Unconditional Money Back Guarantee

To introduce you to this new Plan, we make you this unusual offer: Act during this enrollment period and get your first month's protection for only one dollar (only $2 for your entire family)!

Simply fill out the enrollment form here and mail it with just $1 (or $2 for the entire family), before midnight, of the date in the coupon. A full month's protection will go into effect on the same day we accept your enrollment form. Your policy will be sent to you right away BY MAIL.

When you get your policy, examine all its benefits and features. Have it checked, if you wish, by your lawyer, doctor, clergyman, or other trusted adviser. If you are not 100% satisfied, return the policy within 30 days and your money will be refunded. But if you decide to continue this worthwhile protection, you may do so at the low rates as follows for each member:

World Mutual Monthly Renewal Rates

Age at Enrollment	Monthly Premium
0-39	only $3.95
40-54	only $4.95
55-64	only $5.95
65-74	only $6.95
75 and over	only $9.25

NOTE: The regular Monthly Premium shown here (for your age at time of enrollment) is the same low premium you will continue to pay; it will not automatically increase as you pass from one age bracket to the next! Once you have enrolled in this World Mutual plan, your rate can never be changed because of how much or how often you collect from us — or because of advanced age — but only if there is a general rate adjustment, up or down, on all policies of this type in your entire state!

Act NOW — "Later" May Be TOO Late!

TIME IS PRECIOUS! Act quickly. Get your enrollment form into the mail today—because once you suffer an accident or sickness, it's TOO LATE to buy protection at any cost. That's why we urge you to act today—before anything unexpected happens.

THESE 20 QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Tell you how World Mutual's $100.00-A-Week Income Protection Plan gives you the protection you need — at amazingly low cost!

1. How much will this policy pay me when I go to the hospital?
   $100.00 per week.
2. When will my hospitalization benefits start?
   The day you enter the hospital.
3. Will I be paid if I am in the hospital for less than a full week?
   Yes. This new plan pays whether you are in the hospital for only a day, or a week, a month, or a year!
4. Does this policy have any "waiting periods" before I can use it?
   No. It will go into force on the same day we accept your completed enrollment form and $1 premium (or $2.)
5. How long will I continue to receive hospitalization benefits?
   For every day you are in the hospital to a maximum of 100 weeks, as a result of any one accident or illness.
6. Suppose I am paid benefits for any sickness or accident. What happens if I am again hospitalized for the same condition?
   After you have resumed full normal activities for just six months, you are again eligible for benefits for a recurring condition, to a maximum of 100 weeks. And of course, any new condition would be covered immediately!
7. How may I use these benefit payments?
   You may use them in any way you wish – for hospital and doctor bills, rent, food, household expenses, or anything else. This is entirely up to you!
8. Can I collect from World Mutual even if I carry other insurance?
   Of course. This plan will pay you in addition to whatever you may receive from any other policies, including Medicare, for folks over 65.
9. Why do I need this World Mutual Plan in addition to my other hospital and health insurance?
   While hospital costs have tripled in recent years, very few people have tripled their insurance. The chances are one in seven that you will require hospital care this year – and you will need money to take care of all your other expenses, as well as your hospital bills. Your World Mutual checks are rushed to you by air mail to use as you see fit!
10. May I apply if I am over 65?
    Yes, you may. Folks any age are welcome to apply – there is no age limit!
11. Will my protection be cancelled because I have too many claims?
    No. World Mutual guarantees never to cancel your protection because you have too many claims or because of advanced age. We also guarantee never to refuse to renew your policy unless the premium is not paid before the end of the grace period, or unless renewal is declined on all policies of this type in your entire state. (Of course, if deception is used in making application, the policy may be ineffective.)
12. Will benefits be reduced because of advanced age?
    No. Regardless of how old you become or how many claims you have, your benefits remain the same.
13. Will my rates be raised as I grow older or if I have too many claims?
    No matter how many claims you have, or regardless of how long you keep your policy, your rate will remain the same as it was for your age when you applied. World Mutual guarantees never to adjust this rate unless the rates are adjusted on all policies of this type in your entire state!
14. What is not covered by this policy?
    The only conditions not covered are those caused by: the use of alcoholic beverages or narcotics; mental or nervous disorders; pregnancy, childbirth or miscarriage; expenses resulting from any sickness or injury you had before the policy Effective Date (during the first 3 years only); act of war; or where care is in a Government hospital. Everything else is covered!
15. What are the requirements for membership in this World Mutual Plan?
    You must not have been refused any health, hospital or life insurance; and, to qualify during this enrollment period, you must apply before midnight of the date in the coupon.
16. Why is this offer good for a limited time only?
    Because by enrolling a large number of people at the same time, underwriting, processing and policy issuance costs can be kept at a minimum – and we can pass these savings on to you.
17. Besides the savings, are there other advantages to joining World Mutual during this enrollment period?
    Yes. A very important one is that you do not need to complete a regular application – just the brief form in the lower left hand corner of this page. Also, during this enrollment period there are no other requirements for eligibility – and no "waivers" or restrictive endorsements can be put on your policy!
18. Can other members of my family take advantage of this special offer?
    Yes, as long as they can meet the few requirements listed under Question 15.
19. How does the money-back guarantee work?
    Examine your policy carefully in the privacy of your own home. If for any reason you are not completely satisfied, return it within 30 days and we will promptly refund your money. Meanwhile you will be fully protected while making your decision!
20. How do I join?

Board Hearing Is Postponed In Rosendale

A hearing, requested by James Hicks, member of Rosendale's Town Planning Board, whose dismissal is sought by the board, has been postponed.

Originally planned for Wednesday night, the hearing, to be conducted by the Town Board, was delayed due to the absence of the planning board chairman. A new date will be set.

Meanwhile, the town and village planning boards will meet tonight in a joint session which is to be attended by members of the newly created Zoning Board of Appeals.

The groups will meet with a representative of the planning and consulting firm of Brown and Anthony and with a representative of the New York State Department of Commerce.

The meeting is planned for 8 p.m. in the Town Clerk's office.

Hicks dismissal was sought in a letter of March 20 written by Warren J. Frandoni, acting secretary of the Rosendale Planning Board to the Town of Rosendale. Hicks sought a hearing and action on the request was held in abatement pending the outcome of the hearing.

They serve as diagnosticians and personal physicians to their patients, and as consultants to other doctors.

Board Hearing Is Postponed In Rosendale

A hearing, requested by James Hicks, member of Rosendale's Town Planning Board, whose dismissal is sought by the board, has been postponed.

Originally planned for Wednesday night, the hearing, to be conducted by the Town Board, was delayed due to the absence of the planning board chairman. A new date will be set.

Meanwhile, the town and village planning boards will meet tonight in a joint session which is to be attended by members of the newly created Zoning Board of Appeals.

The groups will meet with a representative of the planning and consulting firm of Brown and Anthony and with a representative of the New York State Department of Commerce.

The meeting is planned for 8 p.m. in the Town Clerk's office.

Hicks dismissal was sought in a letter of March 20 written by Warren J. Frandoni, acting secretary of the Rosendale Planning Board to the Town of Rosendale. Hicks sought a hearing and action on the request was held in abatement pending the outcome of the hearing.

Piano-Duo in Delightful Concert

By DOROTHY A. NAREL

Vronsky and Babin — the piano artists who can look back over more than a quarter of a century of intense musical activity and who, during this span, have given more than 1300 concerts in North America alone and have appeared as soloists with virtually every major orchestra on the continent, kept true to form in a brilliant concert in Kingston last night.

Appearing as guests artists with the Hudson Valley Philharmonic Orchestra, the pianists charmed a full house with their interpretation of Mozart's "Concerto in F Major, K. 242."

Mrs. Thomas Horsey of Woodstock, a member of the Philharmonic Board, who also doubles as corresponding secretary for the organization, had only praise for the guests artists also. She was impressed with the briliant tones produced on the Steinway concert grands and the "amazing team play." The perfect rapport between Vronsky and Babin is a product of years of strenuous and steady training. Their crisp technique, coupled with smooth and liquid tones, was "as refreshing as a spring rain." Mrs. Horsey said.

The Philharmonic, under the baton of Claude Monteux, gave an excellent concert. Noted was the rearrangement of seats. The end result of which was excellent cohesion and balance.

Luis Garcia-Renart, principal cellist, was featured in the first movement of Rossini's William Tell. This performance was beautifully executed with marvelous sonorous tones.

Vronsky and Babin delighted their listeners with a complete change of mood and rhythm in the Scottish Ballad, Op. 26 for Two Pianos. The orchestration was stimulating and the guest artists demonstrated the same perfect balance and superior keyboard techniques.

The orchestra concluded with "Pictures at an Exhibition" by Modest Moussorgsky. Applause for the trumpet soloist, the excellent interplay of the woodwinds, strings and brass. This work, contemporary with Moussorgsky's opera "Boris Godounov," is a product of his most mature style. It is imaginative musical scene-painting.

Dr. Richard J. Messina, president of the Ulster County Council, Philharmonic Society, tells me that a concert for children will be given by the Philharmonic Little Symphony on Sunday, March 24 at 2 p. m. in Saugerties. A Junior Board classical recital is scheduled the same day in Woodstock at the Little Theatre at 3 p. m. In May, Adele Addison will be appearing as guest artist with the Philharmonic.

Hints from Heloise

Dear Heloise:

I have made and hemmed many pairs of drapes.

In the past few years, I've found an easy way to hem them so the bottoms will be parallel with the floor.

I use a dress marker with chalk on dark colors and pins on light colors while the drapery is hanging on the window rod.

The marker adjusts from the floor up so the drapes and liners can be done together or separately. If drapery rods are uneven, the hems will still be the same length from the floor where it really shows. Using this method makes this job a breeze for me.

Mrs. Joyce Owens

Dear Heloise:

When I find I'm growing low on dish towels or cloths, or maybe men's undershirts, I buy one each time I go to the grocery store and I never miss the money this way.

I just finished buying my husband six new undershirts and today I started on dish cloths!

Ever tried rubbing a file with chalk before using it? This is especially good on a metal file. Then all you have to do it hit it on something afterwards and all the little embedded pieces fall right out.

An invitation was extended to all High Falls women to join the organization whose prime purpose is to help the firemen. At the recent Varifab fire more than 200 cups of coffee and sandwiches were served to the firemen.

Meetings are held at 8 p.m. on the second Wednesday of the month at the firehall.

The Most Rev. James E. McManus, CSsR, DD, Episcopal Vicar of Ulster and Sullivan Counties, and the Rev. Piano-Duo in Delightful Concert

By DOROTHY A. NAREL

Vronsky and Babin — the piano artists who can look back over more than a quarter of a century of intense musical activity and who, during this span, have given more than 1300 concerts in North America alone and have appeared as soloists with virtually every major orchestra on the continent, kept true to form in a brilliant concert in Kingston last night.

Appearing as guests artists with the Hudson Valley Philharmonic Orchestra, the pianists charmed a full house with their interpretation of Mozart's "Concerto in F Major, K, 242."

Mrs. Thomas Horsey of Woodstock, a member of the Philharmonic Board, who also doubles as corresponding secretary for the organization, had only praise for the guests artists also. She was impressed with the briliant tones produced on the Steinway concert grands and the "amazing team play." The perfect rapport between Vronsky and Babin is a product of years of strenuous and steady training. Their crisp technique, coupled with smooth and liquid tones, was "as refreshing as a spring rain." Mrs. Horsey said.

The Philharmonic, under the baton of Claude Monteux, gave an excellent concert. Noted was the rearrangement of seats. The end result of which was excellent cohesion and balance.

Luis Garcia-Renart, principal cellist, was featured in the first movement of Rossini's William Tell. This performance was beautifully executed with marvelous sonorous tones.

Vronsky and Babin delighted their listeners with a complete change of mood and rhythm in the Scottish Ballad, Op. 26 for Two Pianos. The orchestration was stimulating and the guest artists demonstrated the same perfect balance and superior keyboard techiques.

The orchestra concluded with "Pictures at an Exhibition" by Modest Moussorgsky. Applause for the trumpet soloist, the excellent interplay of the woodwinds, strings and brass. This work, contemporary with Moussorgsky's opera "Boris Godounov," is a product of his most mature style. It is imaginative musical scene-painting.

Dr. Richard J. Messina, president of the Ulster County Council, Philharmonic Society, tells me that a concert for children will be given by the Philharmonic Little Symphony on Sunday, March 24 at 2 p. m. in Saugerties. A Junior Board classical recital is scheduled the same day in Woodstock at the Little Theatre at 3 p. m. In May, Adele Addison will be appearing as guest artist with the Philharmonic.

Hints from Heloise

Dear Heloise:

I have made and hemmed many pairs of drapes.

In the past few years, I've found an easy way to hem them so the bottoms will be parallel with the floor.

I use a dress marker with chalk on dark colors and pins on light colors while the drapery is hanging on the window rod.

The marker adjusts from the floor up so the drapes and liners can be done together or separately. If drapery rods are uneven, the hems will still be the same length from the floor where it really shows. Using this method makes this job a breeze for me.

Dear Heloise:

When I find I'm growing low on dish towels or cloths, or maybe men's undershirts, I buy one each time I go to the grocery store and I never miss the money this way.

I just finished buying my husband six new undershirts and today I started on dish cloths!

Ever tried rubbing a file with chalk before using it? This is especially good on a metal file. Then all you have to do it hit it on something afterwards and all the little embedded pieces fall right out.

Election Project Is Planned by GOP Women

Republican woman from the 28th Congressional District met recently in Dutchess County where they organized a new project for their district.

"Women for a Republican Congress" is a project initiated by the National Republican Congressional committee's designation of the 28th district as one of the three "marginal targets" in New York State.

Mrs. Mary Ellen Smith speaker for the event and special assistant to Rep. Robert Wilson, chairman of the National Republican Campaign committee, explained the "marginal target." She said that in the 1968 congressional election, it is a district in which a Democrat was elected in 1966 by five per cent of the total votes or less.

Presiding at the meeting was Mrs. David E. Block, Tivoli, vice-chairman Dutchess County Republican committee. Hostesses were Mrs. John B. Teiber, Rhinebeck, and Mrs. Robert Greig, Red Hook.

Chairmen for each of the five counties were appointed. Mrs. Bernhardt S. Kramer, past president of the Ulster County Republican Women's Club will serve as chairman of Ulster County; Columbia County chairman will be Mrs. Stanley Grossman, Hudson; Dutchess County chairman, Mrs. Louis F. Gage, of Staatsburg; Greene County chairman, Mrs. Stanley Dibble, Catskill; Schoharie County chairman, Mrs. Irene Estenes.

The chairmen from the five counties will be assisted by county vice-chairmen, club presidents and women interested in electing a Republican congressman from the 28th district.

Doctor's Mailbag

Q—My heart beats so hard it jerks my whole body. Is this just something to be expected with advancing years?

A—Palpitation may occur at any age. It is caused by the pouring of adrenalin into your blood due to apprehension or similar emotions. In some women, it is more prevalent after the menopause. As with all emotional disturbances, it is important for the victim to take stock of his life situation and adopt a calmer attitude.

Q—My small son was severely scalded about two months ago. Where the burns healed, he has scarring. Can I put anything on them to mask these scars?

A—Effective masking cosmetics are available in any shade required to match the surrounding normal skin. Later he may want to have the scars treated by surgical planing with a wire brush.

A Beautifully Busy Life

By PATRICIA KING
NEA Beauty Editor

NEW YORK — (NEA) — Can a woman who always wanted to be a professional opera singer give up her life's ambition to become a "simple housewife"? One look at Elizabeth Lewis and you have your answer in the affirmative.

Of course, we know that phrase "simple housewife" is a misnomer for any woman. It's not simple and you're never just a wife. In Elizabeth's case, you can add mother, housekeeper, secretary and tour manager as well.

Elizabeth gave up her own promising singing career for her present multiplicity of roles as the wife of Richard Lewis, world - famous British opera singer. She claims she wouldn't have it any other way.

A typical music season for the Lewises involves no less than 13 appearances in New York, a U. S. tour, and eight trans-Atlanteic round trips by jet in less than nine months. You have to wonder what sort of magic Mrs. Lewis performs to retain her wholesome good looks.

It's obvious from first glance she is a woman with a strict beauty regiment. Clear skin, gleaming hair and statuesque figure gave her a good start but constant upkeep and care is necessary.

Mrs. Lewis credits the dewy-moist atmosphere of the English countryside for her marble-like complexion. She has blazened cheeks, clear blue eyes, simply arranged blond hair and gracefully long limbs. She wears little makeup and naturalness is her by-word.

She gives her face a sink steam bath nightly after removing her make-up with a favorite cleanser and then generously creams it. Never does she apply fresh make-up over a dirty face. And she believes in going to bed with make-up on is one of the cardinal sins of skin care which will lead to problems difficult to eradicate.

"The few minutes you spend each night will improve and keep your skin in good condition and your make-up will go on better in the morning," she said.

Mrs. Lewis feels you must shop around for the proper facial product and, when discovered, you must use it consistently or it will be of little value to you.

She realizes there is a close alliance between beauty and exercise and, like most of us, wishes she got more. From the looks of things, what she is doing, she's doing right. Now a homeowner in Bermuda, her favorite form of keeping in shape is bicycle riding and taking care of her new baby. She also feels you must get at least one hour of fresh air a day, generally by walking, and a proper amount of rest.

Her final bit of advice: "No matter how badly the day is going, always substitute a smile for a frown . . . you'll look much prettier."

ELIZABETH AND RICHARD LEWIS happily look to the future from the garden gate of Sanctuary, their 350-year-old home. They have combined modern living conveniences and 16th-century quaintness in their home in the Sussex village of Wilmington, England.

Household Wastebasket Gains Stature

The lowly household wastebasket is gaining stature in the home furnishings field. To be more accurate, it's become a decorator basket, not a wastebasket.

John Davis, designer for Loma Products, a division of Vistron Corporation, said that baskets can be found in every room in the house and are being used in dozens of ways.

'It's not unusual to find two or three of the coordinated baskets in the same room," David said. They easily become umbrella organizers or planters, as well as wastebaskets."

The wide variety of designs and colors to choose from make the baskets especially versatile. They're made to withstand hard use and are decorated with the new bold colors on a neutral background of light mushroom.

There are seven styles—four round and three oblong—in the Classic Flair Decorator line.

To Prevent Static

Adding fabric softener to the rinse water prevents static in synthetic fabrics and prevents lint from sticking to materials, which is particularly noticeable on dark fabrics.

Household Wastebasket Gains Stature

The lowly household wastebasket is gaining stature in the home furnishings field. To be more accurate, it's become a decorator basket, not a wastebasket.

John Davis, designer for Loma Products, a division of Vistron Corporation, said that baskets can be found in every room in the house and are being used in dozens of ways.

'It's not unusual to find two or three of the coordinated baskets in the same room," David said. They easily become umbrella organizers or planters, as well as wastebaskets."

The wide variety of designs and colors to choose from make the baskets especially versatile. They're made to withstand hard use and are decorated with the new bold colors on a neutral background of light mushroom.

There are seven styles—four round and three oblong—in the Classic Flair Decorator line.

To Prevent Static

Adding fabric softener to the rinse water prevents static in synthetic fabrics and prevents lint from sticking to materials, which is particularly noticeable on dark fabrics.

Aero Lake, Guernsey's Win Hudson Valley Openers

Charlie Brown scored 12 of Aero Lake Airport's final 14 points last night, leading the rally that brought Aero Lake a 94-90 win over Jeb's Sport Shop in the opening round of the Hudson Valley Basketball Tournament.

The tourney, held at Dutchess County Community College under the sponsorship of the Poughkeepsie YMCA, saw Brown lead a late surge, bringing the Airmen back from a five-point deficit with five minutes to go.

In the first game, Guernsey's Realtors of Poughkeepsie, rolled over an outclassed Peelor's Motor Service, 94-63.

Brown, high for the night with 44, had to come on in the late stages to pull out the win for Aero Lake.

The former New Jersey State Teachers College star hit only five points in the first quarter as Jeb's went out front, 16-9, before taking a 24-22 lead at the end of the opener.

With Brown and John Stephens hitting regularly, the Airmen outscored Jeb's, 31-22, in the second quarter. Going into the dressing room at halftime, the Airmen held a 53-46 lead, built up on Brown's tally of 15 (he hit the opening four shots) and Stephen's seven.

Boice Rebounds

Chick Boice began sweeping the boards for Aero Lake at the start of the second half. Despite his rebounding, Jeb's cut the margin but A-L led 72-69, heading into the final quarter.

Brown notched 10 in the third period, yet Jeb's, with Tom Mountkill leading the way, outscored the Airmen, 23-19, to reduce the margin to just three.

After another Brown bucket, Aero Lake went cold, not scoring for over three minutes. Jeb's ran off six straight, going from a 74-73 deficit to a 79-74 lead as the clock showed 5:10 remaining.

Brown Gets Hot

Brown then went to work, bringing Aero Lake to within one, 83-82, with 3:40 left. He hit two more ducats to give Aero Lake an 86-83 lead. Mountkill scored a free throw to cut it to two, but Boice banged in a two-pointer at 2:20 to make it 88-84, in favor of Aero Lake.

Brown hit again at the 1:30 mark to up the margin to six, 90-84. After another score by Mountkill, Aero Lake went into a stall. Brown tallied at the 1:13 mark on a pair of fouls and on a layup with one minute left, giving A-L an insurmountable 94-86 lead.

Down the stretch, it was a personal duel between Brown and Mountkill, a former Holy Cross star. Mountkill wound up second high with 32, tallying 16 in each half.

Brown shot a fantastic 67 per cent sinking 16 of 24 shots. As a team, the Airmen hit 49.2 per cent putting in 33 shots in 67 attempts.

Action continues tomorrow with Felicello's Pipers of Marlboro meeting IBM and Mastromarino Lumber taking on the College All-Stars.

Aero Lake next plays Monday, facing IBEW of Rockland County in the nightcap of a doubleheader. That game is scheduled at 8:15 at DCC. The opener pits Wiley's Flying Aces against Guernsey at 7:15.

Win-Run, Baby, Run!

Peacocks Followed The Kennedy Script

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — "Win. Run. baby, run."

Don Kennedy's simple formula was written in chalk on a small blackboard in the St. Peter's dressing room.

Before Monday night's quarter-finals of the National Invitation Basketball tournament were over, it was imprinted in the tired legs of the Duke Blue Devils, the minds of an awed record crowd of 19,500 and certainly in the thoughts of the Kansas Jayhawks.

Kennedy's Peacocks followed his writings to the letter, exploding in all directions at the opening tipoff and stampeding the 10th-ranked Blue Devils 100-71 with sharp-shooting, deft ball-handling and speed, speed, speed.

The display, one of the most devastating in NIT history, was witnessed by Kansas, whose slow deliberate style caught Villanova in a deep freeze 55-49 in the first game. Thus the Jayhawks got some idea of what they must stop when St. Peter's fuels up for them in the semifinals Thursday night.

The other semifinalists will be determined tonight when powerful Dayton takes on underdog Fordham and Long Island U. and Notre Dame clash.

St. Peter's, now 24-2, which upset Marshall in the first round, wasted little time making believers of big, slow, huffing and puffing Duke, the top-seeded team. The Peacocks burst out of the starting blocks and in almost the time it took to play he National Anthem, they had a 15-3 lead.

It was all downhill from there as the tiny New Jersey school stepped boldly into the national spotlight.

"Last week they made fun of us," said Elanrdo Webster, the 6-foot-5 tallest starter who hit 51 points against Marshall and 29 against Duke, including 21 in the first half that ended with the Peacocks ahead 50-29.

"No one knew where St. Peter's was—now they know."

Wilt's 'Biggest Night'

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Wilt Chamberlain's thoughts were 90 miles away. But he still had one of his finest hours in pro basketball — 53 points, 32 rebounds and 14 assists.

After the 7-foot-1 Chamberlain led the Philadelphia 76ers to stunning 158-128 National Basketball Association victory over Los Angeles Monday night, all he could say was: "I'm just happy that Kansas beat Villanova."

Chamberlain went to school at the University of Kansas, so it was natural that he should be concerned about his alma mater, playing in the National Invitational Tournament at Madison Square Garden in New York.

When a voice said over the loudspeaker that Kansas had beaten Villanova, 55-49, time was called and Chamberlain did a brief strut in the third quarter. It was a real crowd-pleaser.

"I just felt good," said Chamberlain, "very happy."

Chamberlain's theatrics during the time out, however, wasn't even a poor second to his remarkable show on the court in a game that cracked four records and tied another:

—Most field goals in a game by both teams, 126 (broke the record of 125 set by Syracuse and San Francisco on March 10, 1963).

—Most field goals by two teams in a half, 73 (broke the mark of 70 set by Boston and Minneapolis Feb. 27, 1959).

—Most assists by both teams in a half, 45 (Broke the standard of 42 held by four different pairs of teams).

—Most field goals for two teams in a quarter, 41 (broke the mark of 40 set by Boston and Minneapolis on Feb. 27, 1959).

Chamberlain scored 20 points in the first half, but really turned it on in the second with 33.

Walker Unlocks The Key

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Jimmy Walker unlocked the Eastern Division tie for the final playoff spot in the National Basketball Association with some key points, but the battle still rages.

Walker, rookie backcourt ace from Providence, fired in eight points in the final quarter Monday night as the Detroit Pistons squeaked past Seattle 88-82. The victory on the West Coast sent the Pistons one-half game ahead of idle Cincinnati in the battle for fourth place.

In other NBA action Monday, Philadelphia, with Wilt Chamberlain pouring in 53 points, clobbered Los Angeles 158-128 at home and New York tripped the Warriors at San Francisco 123-116.

In the American Basketball Association, New Jersey trimmed Houston 113-103, Pittsburgh slammed Anaheim 135-118 and Denver topped New Orleans 108-101.

Dave Bing also contributed 10 of his 16 points in the Pistons' low-scoring victory, marred by turnovers and highlighted by great defensive play. Walker finished with 21 points while Walt Hazzard topped the SuperSonics with 22.

Chamberlain, with one his finest games this season, added 32 rebounds and handed out 14 assists. The 7-foot-1 center connected on 24 of 29 shots from the field as the Eastern Division champs, warming up for the coming playoffs, shot a sizzling 57.1 per cent.

Hal Greer added 32 points for the 76ers. Mel Counts topped Los Angeles with 26 points.

A three-point play by Bill Bradley put the Knicks on top to stay at 34-31 in the second quarter and Cazzie Russell's 13 points in the same quarter pushed New York's lead to 68-59 at halftime.

Birds' Awful Spring Sign of Pennant?

By RON RAPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

If a bad spring means a good season, the Baltimore Orioles have the American League pennant wrapped up.

The Orioles haven't exactly been tearing the Grapefruit League apart in the opening phases of the baseball exhibition season, but at least they haven't been afraid to get up in the morning. Until today.

Monday, the club made a routine flight from Miami Fla., to Sarasota, Fla., for a game with the Chicago White Sox. At least it was as routine as a flight can be after the pilot announces that an engine has been shut off.

Conversation was at an understandable minimum until the plane landed and, of course, the Orioles proceded to get beaten by the White Sox 5-1. Their record now is 3-5.

In other games, Pittsburgh beat Detroit 7-2, Cincinnati took the New York Mets 5-2, Houston beat Oakland 6-4 in 11 innings. St. Louis overcame Philadelphia 8-7 and the New York Yankees lost 5-3 to the Mexico City Reds in Mexico.

The Orioles had barely left Miami when the pilot of their chartered DC7 noticed a runaway propellor on an engine and shut if off as a precautionary measure.

The game at Sarasota had barely begun when Pete Ward hit a three-run homer for the White Sox and Francisco Carlos shut out the Orioles for five innings as a precautionary measure. Which is the kind of a day the Birds had.

Matty Alou drove in three runs with singles for the Pirates, raising his spring training batting average to .400 and his RBI total to 11. Bob Veale worked five innings of three-hit ball for the Bucs.

Hal MaRae had a two-run homer for the Reds in their victory over the Mets, but second baseman Tommy Helms, spiked by Ron Swoboda in the fourth inning, may be lost for a week. The Mets now have lost six in a row.

Doug Rader's double with two out in the 11th drove in Houston's winning runs. The Astros collected 15 hits off four Oakland pitchers while the Athletics had seven hits, three for extra bases.

Philadelphia took a seven-run lead over St. Louis, but the Cards scored twice in the eighth and six unearned runs in the ninth to win.

The Yanks got a pair of homers—from Andy Kosco and Frank Fernandez—and seven innings of eight-hit pitching from Jim Bouton, but errors and timely Mexico City hitting proved to be their downfall. The Yankees have three more games south of the border.

Federation Wants to Know

History Book Deletions... Accident or Coincidence?

Federated Sportsmen's Clubs of Ulster County have announced they will press for an immediate investigation of high school history books.

Federation president William J. Meyer said the sportsmen's action was triggered by an editorial which appears in the March issue of Conservation Council Comments, official publication of the New York State Conservation Council.

Written by John H. Bunz, secretary of the Erie (Pa.) Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs, the editorial charges that several high school history textbooks in use throughout the country omit all references to the Second Amendment of the Bill of Rights.

The second amendment deals with the right of citizens to own and bear arms.

Meyer, president of the 44-club, 6,000-member Federation, said the editorial in question received the prompt attention of the New York State Conservation Council at its session last week in Albany.

It was brought to the attention of the county Federation for action.

"This is just another way in which the county group is helping to give the facts to the public," said Meyer. "This story is of vital interest to every American and especially to sportsmen."

Urges Committees

"I urge every member club of the Federation to immediately form a committee to check on these books at local high schools," Meyer went on. "We wish to emphasize, however, that this is in no way any reflection on local school authorities." Those who contact the school authorities should be careful to point this out.

Meyer explained that the Federation's action was "just a sincere effort of law abiding citizens to make doubly sure that our children are not being sold down the river."

Meyer urges local school boards to lend every possible assistance to the Federation's investigation.

In his editorial, Bunz charges there are textbooks, approved for use in the schools of our nation, which violate the rights of our children to know all 10 of the original amendments to the United States Constitution which compose the Bill of Rights.

The editorial lists 12 textbooks which, it charges, in the text discussion, delete and make no reference to the second amendment. Some of these books, it says, carry identical pictured diagrams which also delete the second amendment.

Are we to assume that these are coincidental deletions or has coincidence become a pattern, the editorial asks.

Cites Takeovers

The editorial continues:

"The Hungarian people can testify what it means for a citizenry to lose the right to own a household gun. One step in a communist or other collectivist takeover of a nation is the denial of the household to possess a gun.

"Repeated omissions of the second amendment in textbooks used to educate our children tend to develop a generation of citizens who are ignorant of their right to own a household gun, as guaranteed in the Constitution of the United States."

Textbooks listed as deleting the second amendment are:

Challenges to American Youth by Arnold Phillipi, 1961, 12th grade; Building Citizenship by Hughes, et al, 1963, 9th grade; The History of Our World, by Boak, et al, 1959, 10th grade; Our American Government by Diamond & Pflieger, 1957, 12th grade.

Aero Lake, Guernsey's Win Hudson Valley Openers

THE HERO — Elnardo Webster (30) being congratulated by teammates, coaches and fans moments after he scored 29 points to lead unranked St. Peter's in an upset victory over Duke's Blue Devils in their NIT battle at Madison Square Garden last night. (UPI TELEPHOTO).

Charlie Brown scored 12 of Aero Lake Airport's final 14 points last night, leading the rally that brought Aero Lake a 94-90 win over Jeb's Sport Shop in the opening round of the Hudson Valley Basketball Tournament.

The tourney, held at Dutchess County Community College under the sponsorship of the Poughkeepsie Y M C A, saw Brown lead a late surge, bringing the Airmen back from a five-point deficit with five minutes to go.

In the first game, Guernsey's Realtors of Poughkeepsie, rolled over an outclassed Peelor's Motor Service, 94-63.

Brown, high for the night with 44, had to come on in the late stages to pull out the win for Aero Lake.

The former New Jersey State Teachers College star hit only five points in the first quarter as Jeb's went out front, 16-9, before taking a 24-22 lead at the end of the opener.

With Brown and John Stephens hitting regularly, the Airmen outscored Jeb's, 31-22, in the second quarter. Going into the dressing room at halftime, the Airmen held a 53-46 lead, built up on Brown's tally of 15 (he hit the opening four shots) and Stephen's seven.

Boice Rebounds

Chick Boice began sweeping the boards for Aero Lake at the start of the second half. Despite his rebounding, Jeb's cut the margin but A-L led 72-69, heading into the final quarter.

Brown notched 10 in the third period, yet Jeb's, with Tom Mountkill leading the way, outscored the Airmen, 23-19, to reduce the margin to just three.

After another Brown bucket, Aero Lake went cold, not scoring for over three minutes. Jeb's ran off six straight, going from a 74-73 deficit to a 79-74 lead as the clock showed 5:10 remaining.

Brown Gets Hot

Brown then went to work, bringing Aero Lake to within one, 83-82, with 3:40 left. He hit two more ducats to give Aero Lake an 86-83 lead. Mountkill scored a free throw to cut it to two, but Boice banged in a two-pointer at 2:20 to make it 88-84, in favor of Aero Lake.

Brown hit again at the 1:30 mark to up the margin to six, 90-84. After another score by Mountkill, Aero Lake went into a stall. Brown tallied at the 1:13 mark on a pair of fouls and on a layup with one minute left, giving A-L an insurmountable 94-86 lead.

Down the stretch, it was a personal duel between Brown and Mountkill, a former Holy Cross star. Mountkill wound up second high with 32, tallying 16 in each half.

Brown shot a fantastic 67 per cent sinking 16 of 24 shots. As a team, the Airmen hit 49.2 per cent putting in 33 shots in 67 attempts.

Action continues tomorrow with Felicello's Pipers of Marlboro meeting IBM and Mastromarino Lumber taking on the College All-Stars.

Aero Lake next plays Monday, facing IBEW of Rockland County in the nightcap of a doubleheader. That game is scheduled at 8:15 at DCC. The opener pits Wiley's Flying Aces against Guernsey at 7:15.

Birds' Awful Spring Sign of Pennant?

By RON RAPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

If a bad spring means a good season, the Baltimore Orioles have the American League pennant wrapped up.

The Orioles haven't exactly been tearing the Grapefruit League apart in the opening phases of the baseball exhibition season, but at least they haven't been afraid to get up in the morning. Until today.

Monday, the club made a routine flight from Miami Fla., to Sarasota, Fla., for a game with the Chicago White Sox. At least it was as routine as a flight can be after the pilot announces that an engine has been shut off.

Conversation was at an understandable minimum until the plane landed and, of course, the Orioles proceded to get beaten by the White Sox 5-1. Their record now is 3-5.

In other games, Pittsburgh beat Detroit 7-2, Cincinnati took the New York Mets 5-2, Houston beat Oakland 6-4 in 11 innings. St. Louis overcame Philadelphia 8-7 and the New York Yankees lost 5-3 to the Mexico City Reds in Mexico.

The Orioles had barely left Miami when the pilot of their chartered DC7 noticed a runaway propellor on an engine and shut it off as a precautionary measure.

The game at Sarasota had barely begun when Pete Ward hit a three-run homer for the White Sox and Francisco Carlos shut out the Orioles for five innings as a precautionary measure. Which is the kind of a day the Birds had.

Matty Alou drove in three runs with singles for the Pirates, raising his spring training batting average to .400 and his RBI total to 11. Bob Veale worked five innings of three-hit ball for the Bucs.

Hal MaRae had a two-run homer for the Reds in their victory over the Mets, but second baseman Tommy Helms, spiked by Ron Swoboda in the fourth inning, may be lost for a week. The Mets now have lost six in a row.

Doug Rader's double with two out in the 11th drove in Houston's winning runs. The Astros collected 15 hits off four Oakland pitchers while the Athletics had seven hits, three for extra bases.

Philadelphia took a seven-run lead over St. Louis, but the Cards scored twice in the eighth and six unearned runs in the ninth to win.

The Yanks got a pair of homers—from Andy Kosco and Frank Fernandez—and seven innings of eight-hit pitching from Jim Bouton, but errors and timely Mexico City hitting proved to be their downfall. The Yankees have three more games south of the border.

Win-Run, Baby, Run!

Peacocks Followed The Kennedy Script

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — "Win. Run. baby, run."

Don Kennedy's simple formula was written in chalk on a small blackboard in the St. Peter's dressing room.

Before Monday night's quarter-finals of the National Invitation Basketball tournament were over, it was imprinted in the tired legs of the Duke Blue Devils, the minds of an awed record crowd of 19,500 and certainly in the thoughts of the Kansas Jayhawks.

Kennedy's Peacocks followed his writings to the letter, exploding in all directions at the opening tipoff and stampeding the 10th-ranked Blue Devils 100-71 with sharp-shooting, deft ball-handling and speed, speed, speed.

The display, one of the most devastating in NIT history, was witnessed by Kansas, whose slow deliberate style caught Villanova in a deep freeze 55-49 in the first game. Thus the Jayhawks got some idea of what they must stop when St. Peter's fuels up for them in the semifinals Thursday night.

The other semifinalists will be determined tonight when powerful Dayton takes on underdog Fordham and Long Island U. and Notre Dame clash.

St. Peter's, now 24-2, which upset Marshall in the first round, wasted little time making believers of big, slow, huffing and puffing Duke, the top-seeded team. The Peacocks burst out of the starting blocks and in almost the time it took to play he National Anthem, they had a 15-3 lead.

It was all downhill from there as the tiny New Jersey school stepped boldly into the national spotlight.

"Last week they made fun of us," said Elanrdo Webster, the 6-foot-5 tallest starter who hit 51 points against Marshall and 29 against Duke, including 21 in the first half that ended with the Peacocks ahead 50-29.

"No one knew where St. Peter's was—now they know."

Wilt's 'Biggest Night'

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Wilt Chamberlain's thoughts were 90 miles away. But he still had one of his finest hours in pro basketball — 53 points, 32 rebounds and 14 assists.

After the 7-foot-1 Chamberlain led the Philadelphia 76ers to stunning 158-128 National Basketball Association victory over Los Angeles Monday night, all he could say was: "I'm just happy that Kansas beat Villanova."

Chamberlain went to school at the University of Kansas, so it was natural that he should be concerned about his alma mater, playing in the National Invitational Tournament at Madison Square Garden in New York.

When a voice said over the loudspeaker that Kansas had beaten Villanova, 55-49, time was called and Chamberlain did a brief strut in the third quarter. It was a real crowd-pleaser.

"I just felt good," said Chamberlain, "very happy."

Chamberlain's theatrics during the time out, however, wasn't even a poor second to his remarkable show on the court in a game that cracked four records and tied another:

—Most field goals in a game by both teams, 126 (broke the record of 125 set by Syracuse and San Francisco on March 10, 1963).

—Most field goals by two teams in a half, 73 (broke the mark of 70 set by Boston and Minneapolis Feb. 27, 1959).

—Most assists by both teams in a half, 45 (Broke the standard of 42 held by four different pairs of teams).

—Most field goals for two teams in a quarter, 41 (broke the mark of 40 set by Boston and Minneapolis on Feb. 27, 1959).

Chamberlain scored 20 points in the first half, but really turned it on in the second with 33.

Walker Unlocks The Key

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Jimmy Walker unlocked the Eastern Division tie for the final playoff spot in the National Basketball Association with some key points, but the battle still rages.

Walker, rookie backcourt ace from Providence, fired in eight points in the final quarter Monday night as the Detroit Pistons squeaked past Seattle 88-82. The victory on the West Coast sent the Pistons one-half game ahead of idle Cincinnati in the battle for fourth place.

Dave Bing also contributed 10 of his 16 points in the Pistons' low-scoring victory, marred by turnovers and highlighted by great defensive play. Walker finished with 21 points while Walt Hazzard topped the SuperSonics with 22.

Chamberlain, with one his finest games this season, added 32 rebounds and handed out 14 assists. The 7-foot-1 center connected on 24 of 29 shots from the field as the Eastern Division champs, warming up for the coming playoffs, shot a sizzling 57.1 per cent.

Hal Greer added 32 points for the 76ers. Mel Counts topped Los Angeles with 26 points.

A three-point play by Bill Bradley put the Knicks on top to stay at 34-31 in the second quarter and Cazzie Russell's 13 points in the same quarter pushed New York's lead to 68-59 at halftime.

Federation Wants to Know

History Book Deletions... Accident or Coincidence?

Federated Sportsmen's Clubs of Ulster County have announced they will press for an immediate investigation of high school history books.

Federation president William J. Meyer said the sportsmen's action was triggered by an editorial which appears in the March issue of Conservation Council Comments, official publication of the New York State Conservation Council.

Written by John H. Bunz, secretary of the Erie (Pa.) Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs, the editorial charges that several high school history textbooks in use throughout the country omit all references to the Second Amendment of the Bill of Rights.

The second amendment deals with the right of citizens to own and bear arms.

Meyer, president of the 44-club, 6,000-member Federation, said the editorial in question received the prompt attention of the New York State Conservation Council at its session last week in Albany.

It was brought to the attention of the county Federation for action.

"This is just another way in which the county group is helping to give the facts to the public," said Meyer. "This story is of vital interest to every American and especially to sportsmen."

Urges Committees

"I urge every member club of the Federation to immediately form a committee to check on these books at local high schools," Meyer went on. "We wish to emphasize, however, that this is in no way any reflection on local school authorities." Those who contact the school authorities should be careful to point this out.

Meyer explained that the Federation's action was "just a sincere effort of law abiding citizens to make doubly sure that our children are not being sold down the river."

Meyer urges local school boards to lend every possible assistance to the Federation's investigation.

In his editorial, Bunz charges there are textbooks, approved for use in the schools of our nation, which violate the rights of our children to know all 10 of the original amendments to the United States Constitution which compose the Bill of Rights.

The editorial lists 12 textbooks which, it charges, in the text discussion, delete and make no reference to the second amendment. Some of these books, it says, carry identical pictured diagrams which also delete the second amendment.

Are we to assume that these are coincidental deletions or has coincidence become a pattern, the editorial asks.

Cites Takeovers

The editorial continues:

"The Hungarian people can testify what it means for a citizenry to lose the right to own a household gun. One step in a communist or other collectivist takeover of a nation is the denial of the household to possess a gun.

"Repeated omissions of the second amendment in textbooks used to educate our children tend to develop a generation of citizens who are ignorant of their right to own a household gun, as guaranteed in the Constitution of the United States."

Textbooks listed as deleting the second amendment are:

Challenges to American Youth by Arnold Phillipi, 1961, 12th grade; Building Citizenship by Hughes, et al, 1963, 9th grade; The History of Our World, by Boak, et al, 1959, 10th grade; Our American Government by Diamond & Pflieger, 1957, 12th grade.

Cycle Racing Not Popular Here, But in Trinidad...

By CHRIS GEHMAN

It may not be very popular in the United States, but down on the Caribbean Islands of Trinidad and Barbados bicycle racing is second only to cricket in popularity.

There's a local representative of the Caribbean cycle racing living in Kingston. IBM's Mike McCarthy of 216 Ten Broeck Avenue was one of the best sprinters in Trinidad and Barbados. He holds a grass track record of 14.8 seconds for the 200 meter match sprints. He coached the Brighton Saddle Boys, a cycle club that won the Barbados championships under his direction in 1964-66.

Mike, originally from Port of Spain, Trinidad, started cycle racing when he was 19. His father, noting that four or so cyclists were killed every year, thought the sport too dangerous for his son.

"It's not the racing itself that is dangerous," declared Mike, "But you have to train on the public roads. The traffic makes it dangerous."

Racing Dangers

Cycle racing it not without its dangers. Mike recalls one race that started with thirty cyclists. "Four of us came into the last turn abreast. It had been raining and the course was a little slick. The man on the inside went down and knocked the rest of us over and the 23 cyclists behind us all piled up too. Only three last runners were able to steer around the pile up."

Hardly any races go by without at least one fall. The racers' feet are strapped to the pedals, so once they're down, they stay down.

Cycling is extremely popular on Barbados and Trinidad. About 30,000 fans attend five international meetings on Trinidad and three on Barbados, not to mention numerous local races.

Trinidad boasts 16 cycle clubs with more than 700 active amateur cyclists age of 13 and older. A colorful parade with all the competing cyclists carrying their nations' banners starts every meeting. Racing is done on 400 meter ovals, either grass or cement, or on the roads.

The old grass loops are being superseded by new cement tracks with corners banked 35 or 40 degrees. While it would seem that the cement tracks would be more dangerous than the grass loops, Mike says that a fall on the cement actually results in a cleaner bruise and scrape than a fall on the grass.

Racing Bikes

Racing bikes cost in the neighborhood of 500 dollars. Mike paid 450 dollars for his first cycle, an Italian Frejus that weighed only 13 pounds. A pair of tires used in time trials weighs just three ounces, and is liable to burst upon hitting a small pebble.

Cycling consists of two main types, sprints and distance racing. In sprints, the racers are allowed only one gear. Sprint bikes have no freewheeling mechanism, so the sprinter must go all out for the whole race. Although they hit speeds of 50-60 mph, sprint bikes have no brakes. Distance machines have plentiful gears, a freewheeling mechanism, and brakes.

Mike preferred sprinting to distance racing. His first win came in a 1000 meter Class C race in Trinidad when he was in his second year as a racer.

Represented Trinidad

Mike's first international racing was done in 1963 while he was a member of the Mario Wheelers in Trinidad. He represented Trinidad against Barbados and was the sprint champion of the Amateur Athletic Association of Barbados, winning the 200 meter match sprints with a record time of 14.8 seconds. (Match sprints are actually a 1,000 meter race, but only the last 200 meters are timed. Only two cyclists are on the track at a time.)

In 1964, Mike had moved to Barbadoes for employment reasons, and he competed on the Barbadian cycle team against Trinidad. Mike won the 2,000 meter race in 2:34.4, the fastest time recorded at the meeting.

Mike arrived in America by what could only be called a circuitous route. When he was working and racing in Barbados (remember that he started in Trinidad, only 222 miles of ocean away) he met the girl who was later to be his wife, Joy. Joy moved to America with her family, and Mike went back to Trinidad to get the papers necessary to get to America.

He came to America, was married and now is the happy father of a 6 week old son named Sean. He is a products control analyzer at IBM.

Mike says the French and Italians are the best bike racers in the world. "It's only natural," he says. "Cycle racing is the national sport over there."

The man who helped organize the Professional bowlers Association in 1958 at Syracuse had a word of caution for young bowlers with an eye on the rigorous PBA tour.

Lindy Faragalli of Wayne, N. J. who is to be inducted in the American Bowling Congress Hall of Fame on March 28 told the KBA's Hall of Fame audience Saturday night that embarking on the PBA tour can be a perilous adventure.

"A young man must have the mechanical equipment and financial security before he takes the plunge," said the man who has rolled 13 perfect ABC-sanctioned 300 scores and once earned $10,000 for rolling "300" on live TV.

The difference between averaging 200 on the bowling tour and playing par golf on the PGA tour is starvation, says Faragalli, a swarthy, aggressive pinman who ranks with Lou (Wrong Foot) Campi and Junie McMahon as the greatest bowlers ever to come out of the Garden State.

"IF YOU CAN'T AVERAGE better than 200 consistently on the PBA just don't try it," Faragalli warned. "On the other hand, the golfer who can play around par figures week after week in the PGA will make a comfortable living.

"It's much better to average 195 one week and 220 the next," Lindy explained. "That way you'll show a profit and survive. But if you stay around and just under 200 you go bankrupt."

A rookie who embarks on the tour full time—about 30 weeks—needs a minimum of $300 a week or approximately $9,000 a year to sustain him, Lindy points out.

"So, if you read that a bowler has earned $10,000 in purses, his net is only $1,000. Like the pro golfer he cannot survive on the tour without a sponsor, either syndicates or the major manufacturing companies.

FARAGALLI MOVES INTO the ABC Hall of Fame in Cincinnati later in the month with a hatful of glittering credentials. His 13 perfect 300's (sanctioned) place him third on the all-time list. He has five 800 series to his credit, the highest an 839 on television.

The 56-year-old Jersey veteran is in that select coterie of ABC bowlers who have rolled 2,000 or better in all events. He won the BPAA National Doubles with Lou Campi and led the 20-year ABC averages with 199 plus.

Faragalli agreed that today's bowlers are younger and better than the old timers—and for obvious reasons.

"We start them young today, give them the benefit of excellent conditions, coaching and encouragement," he says. "In the old days if a kid came into a bowling alley and couldn't set pins, he was booted out of the place.

"A MAN ON TOUR is considered old at 30 today." Faragalli explained, "but in choosing bowlers for the Hall of Fame as you are doing here tonight you also have to emphasize quality and skill over a long period.

"The ABC, for example," sets a minimum of 20 ABC tournaments before a bowler is eligible for Hall of Fame consideration. And it is unfair to compare the old timers with the modern stars. The most you can ask from a man is that he was the best in his time and over a long period."

Faragalli has high praise for present day stars like Nelson Buton, Jr., Joe Stefanich, Wayne Zahn, Dave Davis and others. But he is also respectful of Don Carter, Dick Weber, Ray Bluth and the early pioneers of the PBA.

"The PBA brought bowling into television and transformed the game into an annual jackpot of $750,000," he says.

"Today's young stars are perfectionist. Just watch them and you'll see — their footwork, timing, follow through, coordination is carefully harnessed. They don't throw until they're ready."

ACCOMPANYING FARAGALLI into the Hall of Fame will be his old doubles mate Campi, Tony Sparando, the New York great; Chuck O'Donnell, Barney Spinella, Connie Schwoegler, Russ Gersonde, Joe Kristof and the late Lou Sielaff.

He'll return to New Jersey to his bowling establishment and his part time duties on the AMF professional staff. He's proud of AMF's work in the youth field.

"We've conducted more than 300 junior clinics around the country," he beams. We teach kids to come along and beat us later.

"But we've done more than that," he adds. "We have taken the kid off the streets and brought him into the bowling lanes. Twenty five years ago that wouldn't have sounded so good, would it? he chuckled.

Cycle Racing Not Popular Here, But in Trinidad...

By CHRIS GEHMAN

It may not be very popular in the United States, but down on the Caribbean Islands of Trinidad and Barbados bicycle racing is second only to cricket in popularity.

There's a local representative of the Caribbean cycle racing living in Kingston. IBM's Mike McCarthy of 216 Ten Broeck Avenue was one of the best sprinters in Trinidad and Barbados. He holds a grass track record of 14.8 seconds for the 200 meter match sprints. He coached the Brighton Saddle Boys, a cycle club that won the Barbados championships under his direction in 1964-66.

Mike, originally from Port of Spain, Trinidad, started cycle racing when he was 19. His father, noting that four or so cyclists were killed every year, thought the sport too dangerous for his son.

"It's not the racing itself that is dangerous," declared Mike, "But you have to train on the public roads. The traffic makes it dangerous."

Racing Dangers

Cycle racing it not without its dangers. Mike recalls one race that started with thirty cyclists. "Four of us came into the last turn abreast. It had been raining and the course was a little slick. The man on the inside went down and knocked the rest of us over and the 23 cyclists behind us all piled up too. Only three last runners were able to steer around the pile up."

Hardly any races go by without at least one fall. The racers' feet are strapped to the pedals, so once they're down, they stay down.

Cycling is extremely popular on Barbados and Trinidad. About 30,000 fans attend five international meetings on Trinidad and three on Barbados, not to mention numerous local races.

Trinidad boasts 16 cycle clubs with more than 700 active amateur cyclists age of 13 and older. A colorful parade with all the competing cyclists carrying their nations' banners starts every meeting. Racing is done on 400 meter ovals, either grass or cement, or on the roads.

The old grass loops are being superseded by new cement tracks with corners banked 35 or 40 degrees. While it would seem that the cement tracks would be more dangerous than the grass loops, Mike says that a fall on the cement actually results in a cleaner bruise and scrape than a fall on the grass.

Racing Bikes

Racing bikes cost in the neighborhood of 500 dollars. Mike paid 450 dollars for his first cycle, an Italian Frejus that weighed only 13 pounds. A pair of tires used in time trials weighs just three ounces, and is liable to burst upon hitting a small pebble.

Cycling consists of two main types, sprints and distance racing. In sprints, the racers are allowed only one gear. Sprint bikes have no freewheeling mechanism, so the sprinter must go all out for the whole race. Although they hit speeds of 50-60 mph, sprint bikes have no brakes. Distance machines have plentiful gears, a freewheeling mechanism, and brakes.

Mike preferred sprinting to distance racing. His first win came in a 1000 meter Class C race in Trinidad when he was in his second year as a racer.

Represented Trinidad

Mike's first international racing was done in 1963 while he was a member of the Mario Wheelers in Trinidad. He represented Trinidad against Barbados and was the sprint champion of the Amateur Athletic Association of Barbados, winning the 200 meter match sprints with a record time of 14.8 seconds. (Match sprints are actually a 1,000 meter race, but only the last 200 meters are timed. Only two cyclists are on the track at a time.)

In 1964, Mike had moved to Barbadoes for employment reasons, and he competed on the Barbadian cycle team against Trinidad. Mike won the 2,000 meter race in 2:34.4, the fastest time recorded at the meeting.

Mike arrived in America by what could only be called a circuitous route. When he was working and racing in Barbados (remember that he started in Trinidad, only 222 miles of ocean away) he met the girl who was later to be his wife, Joy. Joy moved to America with her family, and Mike went back to Trinidad to get the papers necessary to get to America.

He came to America, was married and now is the happy father of a 6 week old son named Sean. He is a products control analyzer at IBM.

Mike says the French and Italians are the best bike racers in the world. "It's only natural," he says. "Cycle racing is the national sport over there."

By CHARLES J. TIANO

The man who helped organize the Professional bowlers Association in 1958 at Syracuse had a word of caution for young bowlers with an eye on the rigorous PBA tour.

Lindy Faragalli of Wayne, N. J. who is to be inducted in the American Bowling Congress Hall of Fame on March 28 told the KBA's Hall of Fame audience Saturday night that embarking on the PBA tour can be a perilous adventure.

"A young man must have the mechanical equipment and financial security before he takes the plunge," said the man who has rolled 13 perfect ABC-sanctioned 300 scores and once earned $10,000 for rolling "300" on live TV.

The difference between averaging 200 on the bowling tour and playing par golf on the PGA tour is starvation, says Faragalli, a swarthy, aggressive pinman who ranks with Lou (Wrong Foot) Campi and Junie McMahon as the greatest bowlers ever to come out of the Garden State.

"IF YOU CAN'T AVERAGE better than 200 consistently on the PBA just don't try it," Faragalli warned. "On the other hand, the golfer who can play around par figures week after week in the PGA will make a comfortable living.

"It's much better to average 195 one week and 220 the next," Lindy explained. "That way you'll show a profit and survive. But if you stay around and just under 200 you go bankrupt."

A rookie who embarks on the tour full time—about 30 weeks—needs a minimum of $300 a week or approximately $9,000 a year to sustain him, Lindy points out.

"So, if you read that a bowler has earned $10,000 in purses, his net is only $1,000. Like the pro golfer he cannot survive on the tour without a sponsor, either syndicates or the major manufacturing companies.

FARAGALLI MOVES INTO the ABC Hall of Fame in Cincinnati later in the month with a hatful of glittering credentials. His 13 perfect 300's (sanctioned) place him third on the all-time list. He has five 800 series to his credit, the highest an 839 on television.

The 56-year-old Jersey veteran is in that select coterie of ABC bowlers who have rolled 2,000 or better in all events. He won the BPAA National Doubles with Lou Campi and led the 20-year ABC averages with 199 plus.

Faragalli agreed that today's bowlers are younger and better than the old timers—and for obvious reasons.

"We start them young today, give them the benefit of excellent conditions, coaching and encouragement," he says. "In the old days if a kid came into a bowling alley and couldn't set pins, he was booted out of the place.

"A MAN ON TOUR is considered old at 30 today." Faragalli explained, "but in choosing bowlers for the Hall of Fame as you are doing here tonight you also have to emphasize quality and skill over a long period.

"The ABC, for example," sets a minimum of 20 ABC tournaments before a bowler is eligible for Hall of Fame consideration. And it is unfair to compare the old timers with the modern stars. The most you can ask from a man is that he was the best in his time and over a long period."

Faragalli has high praise for present day stars like Nelson Buton, Jr., Joe Stefanich, Wayne Zahn, Dave Davis and others. But he is also respectful of Don Carter, Dick Weber, Ray Bluth and the early pioneers of the PBA.

"The PBA brought bowling into television and transformed the game into an annual jackpot of $750,000," he says.

"Today's young stars are perfectionist. Just watch them and you'll see — their footwork, timing, follow through, coordination is carefully harnessed. They don't throw until they're ready."

Unusual Mishap Injures Pair

A 33-year-old Ulster County man was severely injured and another man was less seriously hurt, as the result of an unusuall mishap which occurred at 7:15 p. m. Monday on Route 9G in the Town of Hyde Park.

Rhinebeck State Police said Alfred Beadle, of Mt. Marion, was taken to St. Francis Hospital in Poughkeepsie, suffering compound fractures of both legs and other injuries. Napoleon Jacobs, 54, of Victory Lake Camp, Hyde Park, was treated at the same hospital for injuries of the right knee and neck.

Jacobs was a passenger in a car driven bv Gilbert J. Foster, 48, of Victory Lake Camp, which was involved in the collision. Foster was cited by Trooper H. J. McNallen for reckless driving.

According to troopers, cars owned by Lester Langon of Mt. Marion, and Beadle were stopped facing opposite directions on the east shoulder of Route 9G. The two men were jumping a battery in one of the vehicles which had failed, when Foster appeared traveling north. The latter's car went off the right shoulder and crashed into Langon's automobile, pushing it against the Beadle car.

Beadle, troopers said, was standing between the two stopped vehicles and was crushed as the cars collided.

Unusual Mishap Injures Pair

A 33-year-old Ulster County man was severely injured and another man was less seriously hurt, as the result of an unusuall mishap which occurred at 7:15 p. m. Monday on Route 9G in the Town of Hyde Park.

Rhinebeck State Police said Alfred Beadle, of Mt. Marion, was taken to St. Francis Hospital in Poughkeepsie, suffering compound fractures of both legs and other injuries. Napoleon Jacobs, 54, of Victory Lake Camp, Hyde Park, was treated at the same hospital for injuries of the right knee and neck.

Jacobs was a passenger in a car driven by Gilbert J. Foster, 48, of Victory Lake Camp, which was involved in the collision. Foster was cited by Trooper H. J. McNallen for reckless driving.

According to troopers, cars owned by Lester Langon of Mt. Marion, and Beadle were stopped facing opposite directions on the east shoulder of Route 9G. The two men were jumping a battery in one of the vehicles which had failed, when Foster appeared traveling north. The latter's car went off the right shoulder and crashed into Langon's automobile, pushing it against the Beadle car.

Beadle, troopers said, was standing between the two stopped vehicles and was crushed as the cars collided.

Dear Abby

Hubby 'Putting on the Dog'

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: We have an old-maid neighbor who thinks she is smart. She named her cocker spaniel "Lester" knowing perfectly well that was my husband's name.

In the evening when she calls her dog, my husband goes to the window and barks just to confuse her.

There have been times when I have called my husband when he's down the road somewhere and that dog would come running.

Isn't there something we can do about this? There surely must be laws to protect respectable people against being humiliated publicly by people like her. I'd take her to court if I thought I could win.

LESTER'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: If you have a bone to pick with your neighbor over her dog, better do it out of court. A grown man who would bark" to confuse a neighbor who's calling her dog is in no position to find fault with a practical joker.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: We are two young childless women married to brothers. Our problem is that our husbands only very casually mentioned to us that there was a third brother who has lived in an institution as long as they could remember. That is all they have ever told us about him. They have never visited him, and they never refer to him. It is as if he were dead. We aren't even sure if this brother is mentally ill, was a brain-damaged baby, retarded, or insane.

Once I asked my husband to tell me something about this brother he never saw, thinking it could be a genetic defect and possibly hereditary, so perhaps we should consider adoption. He said he knew nothing more than he had told me, and he didn't want to ask his parents as it "upsets" them to discuss it.

Abby, should we inquire at the institution and ask them to keep our inquiries confidential. Or should we go directly to in-laws and ask them? Or should we ignore the whole thing?

PUZZLED PAIR

DEAR PUZZLED: Ask your husbands. They should realize that your reasons for wanting to know all about this institutionalized brother are valid. And they should provide you with the answers. If they fail to satisfy you, get in touch with the institution.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: A little 10-year-old girl named "Brettschneider" wrote to tell you that even tho she had a "funny" name that most people found hard to spell and pronounce, she was proud of it and she didn't feel it was a handicap. Good for her!

I also had a "funny" name. "Grzeskowiak"! I married a girl who hated it so much she nagged me until I finally went to court and had it legally changed to something very short and ordinary.

Well, to make a long story short, after three years our marriage fell apart and we were divorced. I went to court again and got my old name back, and now I am married to a wonderful girl who could hardly wait to change her name from "Jones" to Grzeskowiak. Sincerely yours. G.G.

* * *

CONFIDENTIAL TO "HAD IT": If you continue to live with a man who lies, cheats, and has put you in the hospital twice in the last year, you are sicker than he is. Talk to your priest. He's heard everything. And see your doctor again. He's seen everything.

* * *

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal., 90069 and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

FOR ABBY'S NEW BOOKLET "WHAT TEEN-AGERS WANT TO KNOW," SEND $1.00 TO ABBY, BOX 69700, LOS ANGELES, CAL. 90069.

Horoscope — By SYDNEY OMARR

It's In The Stars —

("The wise man controls his destiny . . . astrology points the way.")

FORECAST FOR WEDNESDAY, MARCH 20, 1968

ARIES (March 21-April 19): You get backing from authorities. Emphasis on working toward long-range goal. Some who are closely associated appear radical. They want changes at quick, furious pace. Stand pat.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Do your best—accent quality. One with experience enters the scene. He will choose you over those who merely brag, who flash and then splutter. Be confident and steady.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Opposition not as strong as you imagine. Key is to understand reasons for delay, possible setback. Be analytical. Listen to one who returns from sales trip, short journey.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Change at home could lead to talk about change of residence. Some who are close to you are not satisfied with status quo. Today you get the truth in frank, uncompromising manner.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): To get at truth, take off your rose-colored glasses. Member of opposite sex emphasizes glamor—but this could be misleading. Your budget is wrecked if you are foolish.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): Day when you must review responsibilities, plans, goals. You get to know where you are going and why. Key is to accept situation in realistic manner. Older individual helps cause.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Finish project. Extend sphere of influence. You may find it necessary to embark upon short journey. Do so—but stick to business. Message becomes crystal clear by tonight.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Money comes your way through intensified effort. Basic issues come to fore. You are capable of handling extra challenge. One who works for or with you acts in eccentric manner.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): Cycle high. You are able to see people, accomplish things. Key is degree of confidence. You can make circumstances turn in your favor. Specifically, you learn where you stand with loved one.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): Stay put if possible. Means make no surprise moves. Offer may be forthcoming. Your strength lies in ability to be patient. Be versatile but overcome tendency to be restless.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Hold back on expenditures. Review program. You can advance — but you must have solid base upon which to build. Depend upon yourself, not on friends. Means be self-reliant.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20): Your ambitions come face-to-face with cost, expense. If flexible you get what you want without suffering in financial area. Message becomes clear before day is finished.

IF TODAY IS YOUR BIRTHDAY you tend to be subject to moods — but on constructive level you are creative, artistic. Musical ability or appreciation stands out. And this year you could make family very proud.

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Cycle high for SAGITTARIUS, CAPRICORN, AQUARIUS This is day of vernal equinox — a new beginning for many. Special word to LEO: don't be deceived by outer cover . Look within.

Bad Breaks Often Occur

By Oswald and James Jacoby

Eight trumps in the combined hands constitute a satisfactory trump holding. The adverse trumps will divide 3-2 about 68 per cent of the time, so declarer should start his campaign by assuming a 3-2 break and continue by planning safety measures in case they do not.

South wasn't a good player. You can look at his bidding and see that he wasn't. A good player would have let his partner play three no-trump.

In addition to being a bad player, South was a talker. As soon as dummy hit the table he berated North for not having passed four spades. We agree that North should have passed four spades but most of the blame for getting into the never-never land between game and slam must rest on South's shoulders.

South was so busy talking that he proceeded to go down at his five spade contract. He won the first trick with the ace of clubs and promptly laid down his ace and king of spades. East showed out and, since no miracle happened in the side suits, South had to lose two trump tricks and a diamond and the rubber had been thrown away.

South had a safety play at his disposal. He should win the club in his own hand, cash the ace of spades, enter dummy with the ace of clubs, lead the nine of spades and play low in the event that East failed to split his honors.

This play would guard against the actual 4-1 break with very little risk.

There would be some risk. The second club might be ruffed or West could hold an honor and one trump, or East might be void in diamonds so if West won the second trump a diamond ruff. Either of these contingencies was possible but decidedly not as likely as a 4-1 trump break.

After reading a terse review of a recent best-seller, the young clerk-typist decided she would read the complete novel.

After listening to a terse account of a recent sales meeting, the two supervisors agreed that some changes were necessary to improve their product's public image.

Dear Abby

Hubby 'Putting on the Dog'

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: We have an old-maid neighbor who thinks she is smart. She named her cocker spaniel "Lester" knowing perfectly well that was my husband's name.

In the evening when she calls her dog, my husband goes to the window and barks just to confuse her.

There have been times when I have called my husband when he's down the road somewhere and that dog would come running.

Isn't there something we can do about this? There surely must be laws to protect respectable people against being humiliated publicly by people like her. I'd take her to court if I thought I could win.

LESTER'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: If you have a bone to pick with your neighbor over her dog, better do it out of court. A grown man who would bark" to confuse a neighbor who's calling her dog is in no position to find fault with a practical joker.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: We are two young childless women married to brothers. Our problem is that our husbands only very casually mentioned to us that there was a third brother who has lived in an institution as long as they could remember. That is all they have ever told us about him. They have never visited him, and they never refer to him. It is as if he were dead. We aren't even sure if this brother is mentally ill, was a brain-damaged baby, retarded, or insane.

Once I asked my husband to tell me something about this brother he never saw, thinking it could be a genetic defect and possibly hereditary, so perhaps we should consider adoption. He said he knew nothing more than he had told me, and he didn't want to ask his parents as it "upsets" them to discuss it.

Abby, should we inquire at the institution and ask them to keep our inquiries confidential. Or should we go directly to in-laws and ask them? Or should we ignore the whole thing?

PUZZLED PAIR

DEAR PUZZLED: Ask your husbands. They should realize that your reasons for wanting to know all about this institutionalized brother are valid. And they should provide you with the answers. If they fail to satisfy you, get in touch with the institution.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: A little 10-year-old girl named "Brettschneider" wrote to tell you that even tho she had a "funny" name that most people found hard to spell and pronounce, she was proud of it and she didn't feel it was a handicap. Good for her!

I also had a "funny" name. "Grzeskowiak"! I married a girl who hated it so much she nagged me until I finally went to court and had it legally changed to something very short and ordinary.

Well, to make a long story short, after three years our marriage fell apart and we were divorced. I went to court again and got my old name back, and now I am married to a wonderful girl who could hardly wait to change her name from "Jones" to Grzeskowiak. Sincerely yours, G.G.

Cosby Amusing, Endearing

BY CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Bill Cosby is an ingratiating, gentle comedian whose stock in trade is nostalgia, and whose specialty is the creation of a warm atmosphere.

And if there was anything wrong with his hour special on NBC Monday night it was the sound of some—about six, it seemed—hyenas who howled hysterically at Cosby's low-key jokes.

A 'One-Man' Show

He is a genuinely funny fellow, but his is the kind of humor that evokes chuckles rather than belly laughs. But it will probably be another 50 years before television producers, for whom hyperbole is a way of life, learn that the living room viewer does not have to be rolling on the floor in convulsions of merriment to be enjoying himself. Or that wild screams of laughter coming from the set do not, necessarily, set off a chain reaction.

Cosby in his first TV special presented what was in essence a one-man show. And he proved to be an endearing, amusing guy whether he was joining in a street game of buck-buck with some young friends or recalling the terror and discomfort of having his tonsils removed at age seven.

The hour was put together by some of Hollywoods best comedy talents, and any relationship between Bill Cosby, of "I Spy" and Bill Cosby, raconteur, was definitely not coincidental.

Laugh Track Only Minus

There were some interludes during which he was off-camera and these were filled by a young girl, Janice Robinson, playing a trombone solo, and by the chorus of dancers in production numbers. But it was Cosby's hour, and while he constantly evoked the memories of his boyhood friends, Fat Albert and Weird Harold, he was still in control of everything except that insane laugh track.

ABC News, which originally planned to chop down its coverage of the political conventions to a nightly summary of highlights, is re-evaluating the situation. It is expected that the network stance, in view of new developments, will be modified considerably now that the convention promise to contain more drama and excitement than "Peyton Place."

NBC will move its Tuesday night movie summer reruns to 8:30 p.m.—an extra half hour during which, presumably, some of those cuts will be restored to fill up the time.

Recommended tonight: "The Strange Case of the English Language," CBS, 10-11 EST, a report on the fluid state of the king's English, an essay by Andre Rooney, narrated by Harry Reasoner.

A Compromising Albany Situation

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Fiscal experts in the politically split legislature groped today for a compromise on Gov. Rockefeller's proposed $5.5 - billion budget.

With only six days left in the current financial year, the Democratic-ruled Assembly and the Republican - controlled Senate sought agreement on economies in the Republican governor's taxing and spending plan.

The chairmen of the Senate and Assembly financial committees were striving for an agreement by Wednesday. With that in mind, administration sources reported, Rockefeller has invited Assembly Speaker Anthony J. Travia and Senate Majority Leader Earl W. Brydges to confer on the budget Wednesday.

While the Assembly Ways and Means Committee and the Senate Finance Committee grappled with the budget Monday, the two houses waded through thick calendars but passed no major legislation.

Meanwhile, in off-the-floor activity, there were these other developments:

MEDICAID — Senate Republicans introduced legislation designed to bring part of the recent drastic $300 - million cutback in the state medical assistance plan into line with federal requirements.

Specifically, the Republicans proposed to eliminate the so - called co - insurance provision, under which medicaid recipients would be required to pay 2% per cent of their medical bills. This would chip away an estimated $3.5 - million of the $300 million reduction effected by recently signed medicaid legislation.

The reason for the new medicaid move in Albany was Washington's reminder that the cutback bills conflicted with federal stipulations that co - insurance provisions apply to the the blind and the aged, as well as other recipients. New York's legislation exempts persons in those two categories.

NARCOTICS — Sen. John H. Hughes, R-Syracuse, chairman of the Legislature's Committee on Crime, reinforced his call for a $25.9-million slash in the section of Rockefeller's proposed budget that deals with the financing of the state's campaign to curb drug addiction.

Hughes said the Legislature should demand a "freeze" at 4,000 of the number of addicts treated under the new program. He complained that the estimated cost of $8,400 a year for treatment of each addict drawn into the program was too high for what he termed "an experimental program."

Reds: Early Word On Air Attacks

SAIGON (AP) — Six North Vietnamese defectors said today that Hanoi's intelligence sources provide as much as 24 hours advance notice and the approximate location of U.S. B52 bombing raids in South Vietnam.

The information has enabled North Vietnamese and Viet Cong forces to dig in and protect themselves from the huge bomb loads dropped by the high-altitude bombers, the defectors said.

Nguyen Cong Tan, a political officer who defected last summer, told newsmen at a Saigon news conference "the North Vietnamese army knows 24 hours in advance about the B52 bombing" from agents in many foreign countries. He said he did not know specifically how Hanoi gets the notice.

La Thanh Dong, 33, a first lieutenant who defected near Khe Sanh last month, said: "Through foreign agents and the Central Security Service in Hanoi we know each B52 strike 24 hours before they take off and the tentative coordinates" locating the attack on the map.

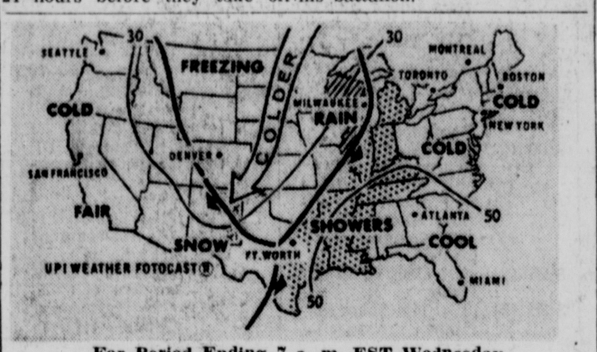

The B52s fly to targets in Vienam mainly from Guam and Thailand. It is possible, U.S. officials admit, for Russian trawlers to pass on information about the planes taking off from Guam, and for agents in Thailand to do likewise.

But this would give a few hours warning at most. Earlier warning would mean that the Communists are intercepting coded U.S. military messages or that they have other access to advance information on the B52 raids.

Lt. Dong said every time North Vietnamese troops in his area were warned a B52 raid was on the way, they hid in trenches.

"Maybe nothing would happen," he said, 'but about 50 per cent of the time the B52s did come."

Luong Dinh Du, one of the defectors, said he had seen a B52 strike wipe out one-quarter of his battalion.

For Period Ending 7 a. m. EST Wednesday

WASHINGTON-BOUND — Governor Nelson A. Rockefeller waves as he leaves the Capitol in Albany Monday on his way to Washington. Rockefeller is scheduled to meet with GOP senators today after which he will hold a news conference. (UPI TELEPHOTO).

The County Fund Hits New Block

The $15 million 1968 county budget which was finally validated by the State Legislature late in February ran into a slight complication Monday when a bill to extend the tax payment deadline was returned to the Assembly due to a technicality.

Assembly Bill 2465 introduced by Assemblyman Kenneth L. Wilson, R-Ulster, required amending and passed unanimously in the Assembly yesterday afternoon. The bill now moves to the Senate for passage.

The measure legalizes the extension of the deadline for paymen of county taxes from Jan. 31 to Feb. 10. Many townships extended the payment deadline in accordance with a resolution passed by the old County Board of Supervisors. However it requires an act of the legislature to legalize the deadline extension.

Attorney Sherwood Davis, executive assistant to Assemblyman Wilson said this morning he did not foresee any difficulty in putting the measure through the Senate.

Extension of the payment deadline was necessary due to the lateness of preparing the budget and subsequent postponement of the public hearing on the budget.

Davis said results of a survey on vital legislative matters recently conducted by the Woodstock assemblyman will be available next week. However he would like to correct a premature report which incorrectly listed that 60 per cent of the people favored some form of gun legislation.

Actually 60 per cent of those canvassed did not favor gun legislation.

Rocky Word Thursday

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Nelson A. Rockefeller—undermounting pressure from party moderates to enter the Republican presidential race this week—first tests his views on GOP senators representing a spectrum of philosophies.

The New York governor planned to outline his position on government spending and other matters today at a meeting with 20 senators ranging from conservatives to liberals.

The New York Times said today Rockefeller will become an active candidate Thursday with an announcement he will enter Oregon's May 28 primary. Friday is the deadline for filing candidacy papers there.

The newspaper gave no source for its report and Rockefeller press secretary Leslie Slote said, "I know nothing about it."

Rockefeller brushed aside reports he may be forced to face Richard M. Nixon in the Nebraska primary if he becomes a candidate. "The world isn't going to be made or broken on one primary," he told newsmen as he arrived in Washington.

While Rockefeller was pondering, lines were hardening in the embattled Democratic presidential race with these developments:

—President Johnson—in apparent allusion to Democratic candidates Robert F. Kennedy and Eugene J. McCarthy, who oppose his war policy—said "we don't plan to surrender (in Vietnam) or let people divide our nation in time of national peril."

—Kennedy, in two emotion-charged appearances before Kansas university students, proposed direct negotiations with the Viet Cong as part of efforts to end the war and said: "This country needs honesty and candor in its political life and from the President of the United States."

—McCarthy told a news conference in Maine Kennedy's offer to help him in early primaries and then face him in later ones sounded "kind of like fattening me up for the kill."

—The Gallup Poll shows Johnson and Kennedy tied as the people's choice to become the Democratic presidential nominee. Each got 41 per cent of the votes in a survey of adults in 300 cities and communities.

Rockefeller's meeting today was with senators who included Nixon backers and others hostile to a Rockefeller candidacy.

Rockefeller backers had met in Washington the day before and quickly adopted a resolution calling him "the Republican with the greatest chance of winning in November."

A Compromising Albany Situation

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Fiscal experts in the politically split legislature groped today for a compromise on Gov. Rockefeller's proposed $5.5 - billion budget.

With only six days left in the current financial year, the Democratic-ruled Assembly and the Republican - controlled Senate sought agreement on economies in the Republican governor's taxing and spending plan.

The chairmen of the Senate and Assembly financial committees were striving for an agreement by Wednesday. With that in mind, administration sources reported, Rockefeller has invited Assembly Speaker Anthony J. Travia and Senate Majority Leader Earl W. Brydges to confer on the budget Wednesday.

While the Assembly Ways and Means Committee and the Senate Finance Committee grappled with the budget Monday, the two houses waded through thick calendars but passed no major legislation.

Meanwhile, in off-the-floor activity, there were these other developments:

MEDICAID — Senate Republicans introduced legislation designed to bring part of the recent drastic $300 - million cutback in the state medical assistance plan into line with federal requirements.

Specifically, the Republicans proposed to eliminate the so - called co - insurance provision, under which medicaid recipients would be required to pay 2[illegible] per cent of their medical bills. This would chip away an estimated $3.5 - million of the $[illegible] million reduction effected by recently signed medicaid legislation.

The reason for the new medicaid move in Albany was Washington's reminder that the cutback bills conflicted with federal stipulations that co - insurance provisions apply to the the blind and the aged, as well as other recipients. New York's legislation exempts persons in those two categories.

NARCOTICS — Sen. John H. Hughes, R-Syracuse, chairman of the Legislature's Committee on Crime, reinforced his call for a $25.9-million slash in the section of Rockefeller's proposed budget that deals with the financing of the state's campaign to curb drug addiction.

Hughes said the Legislature should demand a "freeze" at 4,000 of the number of addicts treated under the new program. He complained that the estimated cost of $8,400 a year for treatment of each addict drawn into the program was too high for what he termed "an experimental program."

Reds: Early Word On Air Attacks

SAIGON (AP) — Six North Vietnamese defectors said today that Hanoi's intelligence sources provide as much as 24 hours advance notice and the approximate location of U.S. B52 bombing raids in South Vietnam.

The information has enabled North Vietnamese and Viet Cong forces to dig in and protect themselves from the huge bomb loads dropped by the high-altitude bombers, the defectors said.

Nguyen Cong Tan, a political officer who defected last summer, told newsmen at a Saigon news conference "the North Vietnamese army knows 24 hours in advance about the B52 bombing" from agents in many foreign countries. He said he did not know specifically how Hanoi gets the notice.

La Thanh Dong, 33, a first lieutenant who defected near Khe Sanh last month, said: "Through foreign agents and the Central Security Service in Hanoi we know each B52 strike 24 hours before they take off and the tentative coordinates" locating the attack on the map.

The B52s fly to targets in Vienam mainly from Guam and Thailand. It is possible, U.S. officials admit, for Russian trawlers to pass on information about the planes taking off from Guam, and for agents in Thailand to do likewise.

But this would give a few hours warning at most. Earlier warning would mean that the Communists are intercepting coded U.S. military messages or that they have other access to advance information on the B52 raids.

Lt. Dong said every time North Vietnamese troops in his area were warned a B52 raid was on the way, they hid in trenches.

"Maybe nothing would happen," he said, 'but about 50 per cent of the time the B52s did come."

Luong Dinh Du, one of the defectors, said he had seen a B52 strike wipe out one-quarter of his battalion.
